

PIGEON HOLE APPROVAL OF BOARD PLAN

PETEY DINK—WELL, YOU KNOW THAT ANYBODY CAN BUY ONE.

By C. A. VOIGHT

SPORTS

CANTILLON HONORED BY LOCAL FRIENDS; FIRST GAME PLAYED

Janesville interested in Minneapolis Manager, Beloit in Gharrry, Fort Atkinson and Edgerton in Sullivan.

Over four hundred baseball fans, composed of the rabid variety who braved the chilly winds at the Association park yesterday afternoon to witness a ball game, and the old time friends of Joe Cantillon and Beloit admirers of Eddie Gharrry, turned out to witness Cantillon's Gas House Terror triumph over Sullivan's Buttermakers. Two picked nines of the Minneapolis Association squad, in a ten inning duel, to a score of 8 and 4.

That Cantillon learned his profession in Janesville, and that Gharrry obtained his start in Rock county, and that Billy Sullivan, one time idol of the Chicago White Sox was displaced as a ball player while outwitted at a creamery between Edgerton and Fort Atkinson, made the game interesting. Players of the ancient but memorable bare knuckle days, when the Janesville Mutuals were kings of the diamonds, brought out an assembly of the veterans who rejoiced with Cantillon and his victory.

The Minneapolis squad of twenty players was split into two nines, one headed by the veteran Billy Sullivan and the other by Eddie Gharrry doing the job at backstop. The game was not big league in quality but for the first of the season, it served the purpose of giving the crowd a keen appetite for ball games. There was plenty of loose and bad baseball mixed-up in the fray but the players had rode from Fulton, Tenn., to Chicago last night so boots and boners were partly excusable. For the Buttermakers a recruit named Falt started in the box and the Gas House gang banded out his delivery in a manner that would indicate that Falt could meet his "fate" before the season starts in the shape of a tin can back to the bush leagues. Williams, a tall individual with plenty of hook and steam, hurled for the Gas House troupe and Williams showed mid-season form, not allowing a run during the five innings and only three scratch hits during his stay on the mound. He is a former Washington hurler and is billed to pitch the opener against the Milwaukee club on Thursday. After Williams' exit, with honorable mention, Ingersol took up the heaving duties and his name did not belie his motion. He was good for four runs in as many innings and came near dropping the game but for a tenth inning rally on a fluke Texas leaguer.

In the first inning the Gas House tribe put across two runs on a hit when Holland and Massey executed a double steal and scored on a passed ball one of the two crimes Billy Sullivan committed during the melee. They added one more in the third on a passed ball. The Cantillon clan repeated with plenty of safe wallopers but lacked the vital punch to count until the fatal tenth. Eddie Gharrry brought a round of cheers when he boosted out a clean triple in the sixth, scoring a run that threatened a sew up the game.

In the ninth Pitcher Ingersol must have broken his main spring for he filled the bases and then Sullivan helped matters along with a hit and came the blow up in the tenth. The Cantillon team, under the spur of sharp commands from their fighting leader jumped on Pitcher Wahlstrom and pounded home four runs and a victory.

BOX SCORE.

Buttermakers.	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Altizer, ss.	5	1	2	3	4	3
J. Williams, 2b.	5	1	2	3	0	1
Cashion, lb.	5	1	1	10	1	0
Goch, cf.	4	0	1	0	0	0
J. Brown, 3b.	4	0	1	4	2	0
Sullivan, c.	4	1	1	19	5	0
S. Brown, rf.	4	1	1	0	9	0
Wiley, lf.	4	0	1	1	1	0
Falt, p.	2	1	1	0	5	1
Wahlstrom, p.	2	0	0	1	1	0
Totals	30	4	11	30	19	6

Gas House Gang.

AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Mitchell, 3b.	5	2	1	1	0
Holland, 2b.	5	1	4	4	5
Ingersol, lf.	4	1	0	1	0
Clymer, ss.	4	1	0	2	0
Gharrry, c.	3	1	2	14	0
Wilson, lb.	5	1	1	6	1
Ingersol, cf.	5	0	2	1	1
Dumont, rf.	4	1	1	1	0
N. Williams, p.	2	0	0	0	0
Hogue, cf.	2	0	1	0	0
Totals	30	8	12	30	10

Score by Innings.

Gas House	2	0	1	0	0	0	4	8
Buttermakers	0	0	0	1	1	1	1	0

Two base hits—J. Williams, Goch, Sullivan, Mitchell, Holland, 2; Wilson.

Three base hits—J. Brown, Gharrry.

Struck out by Falt, 5; by Wahlstrom, 4; by Williams, 5; by Ingersol, 4.

Hit by pitched ball, by Wahlstrom (Clymer).

Wild pitches—Falt 2.

Time of game, 1:50. Umpires Higgins and Butters.

Among the "old timers" who greeted Cantillon and his "hopefuls" were Cal Broughton, of Evansville, Frank L. Smith, Thomas Morrissey, and Thomas Abbott. None of the veterans could see that the Millers stand "ace high" with the old Mutuals and Cal Broughton offered to go out on the diamond and show them how to play the game but no one ventured to bring forth the uniform.

Holland at second for the Gas House took care of nine chances, without a miss, and rung up four hits, two of which were doubles.

"The Millers are going to finish at the top of the ladder" said Cantillon, "I was unable to get together a winning bunch last year but this season I have plenty of young material with enough old hands to balance the team. We have had bad training conditions, hard luck through sickness and injury, but we will be ready for the Braves on Thursday. Billy Sullivan will be our first string catcher and 'Sully' has plenty of baseball left in him. His arm and eye had not deserted him and what he has lost here will be made up by his brain. His knowledge of the game should be a great aid to the younger players. Gharrry promises to develop into a sensational catcher and his batting is his strongest point and under Sullivan should

BASEBALL RESULTS.

Federal League.
Buffalo 6, Brooklyn 4.
Newark 3, St. Louis 1.
Chicago 6, Pittsburgh 5.
St. Louis 3, Kansas City 1.

GAMES TOMORROW.

National League.
St. Louis at Chicago.
Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.
Brooklyn at New York.
Philadelphia at Boston.
American League.
Chicago at St. Louis.
Cleveland at Detroit.
New York at Washington.
Boston at Philadelphia.
Federal League.
Newark at Brooklyn.
Buffalo at Baltimore.
St. Louis at Kansas City.
Pittsburgh at Chicago.

STANDINGS OF THE TEAMS.

Federal League.	L.	Per.
Newark	3	0.1000
Chicago	2	0.1000
Brooklyn	2	1.567
Kansas City	2	1.500
St. Louis	2	1.500
Buffalo	1	2.333
Pittsburgh	1	3.250
Baltimore	0	3.000

Learn the finer art of catching.

A number of the squad did their team mates good-by at Janesville last night and this morning for they received their tickets back to the ball and went to the club house.

Not with the squad being called home by the illness of a relative, Jennings, Yingling, a star pitcher, and Smith, a third baseman have not reported to the club and the club roster will be cut down to 20 and later to sixteen to conform with the league rules.

Two players and a second in five years is the record held by Cantillon and he is out to repeat this year.

Wahlstrom, who hurled part of yesterday's game, never pitched a game of professional ball in his life. He was discovered in a small burg named Center in Minnesota and it is said he will stick as he shows promise.

The team plays in Fort Atkinson today and Sullivan will be the hero of the day.

LAKOTAS CONFIDENT OF WIN ON FRIDAY

Janesville Five Will Close Season With a Victory Over Company E According to Present Dope.

The Lakota Cardinals are going to have a worthy argument on Friday night when they clash with the Company E team of Fond du Lac in the long standing dispute between these two fives for the state championship. While the Lakotas trounced the Fond du Lac team a time ago, it will be a strengthened argument that will oppose them Friday night.

Claims were made by the Company E managers that they had the real five that played here because the center, the celebrated and renowned Hawkins was not in the game. This time Hawkins and his six foot four in height and two hundred pounds of muscle, will be here to meet Hemming.

At forward there will be Fogarty, whom Edler will oppose. Last game Edler had Fogarty's number and the Fond du Lac team could not do much against the Lakota player. At the other forward it is expected a young player named Karst will perform. Karst is an All State high school forward, having practically won the state meet at Appleton for Fond du Lac through his ability at basket shooting. Dalton will be against him. Guards Young and Longdin or Thompson will battle for the care of Atwood and Karst. It is safe bet that the whole Company E team will lay in wait for Atwood because of his speed and cunning. "Eddie" will have trouble on his hands to count his usual number of goals. Thompson is a star man at center and forward and his ability at playing guard is not known here. He is an All State center, being the best man on the Lawrence five this year. Newspaper reports from Fond du Lac bring the information that the Lakota champs expect to defeat the Lakotas and erase all title claims gained in the first games.

The Lakotas with Edler as captain have figured the Company E style of play and are planning a guarding system that should cause the visitors trouble to score. Dalton and Edler are as good a pair of guards as there is in the state and Dalton is expected to give either Karst or Thompson an even break on scoring. Karst will probably play in the other forward position making two good goal men.

NOTED ALASKAN DOG RACE TO NOME—STARTS TODAY.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Nome, Alaska, April 14.—The famous All-Alaska Sweepstakes dog race to be run over the snow trail from Nome to Candle and return was scheduled to start today. More than seven dog teams will be sent to race in the classic "dog derby of the North." The total distance to be covered is 412 miles.

They have started spring training for the Harvard football squad but it isn't for the purpose of developing the 1915 eleven. Ten of the 14 team will be back in this year's lineup, and the only desire of the coaches is the spring workouts is to develop material for the 1916 team. Most of the thirty candidates now engaged in spring work are from the freshman squad of last fall.

WHOOPIES! LIDS OFF BASEBALL SCHEDULE

Two Major Leagues Open Baseball Season With a Resounding Bang. —Notables to Participate in Openers.

Opening Games.
National League.
At New York—Brooklyn.
At Boston—Philadelphia.
At Cincinnati—Pittsburgh.
At Chicago—St. Louis.
American League.
At Philadelphia—Boston.
At Washington—New York.
At St. Louis—Chicago.
At Detroit—Cleveland.

(By Hal Sheridan.)
New York, April 14.—They're off today. The chase for the 1915 championship began when the National and American leagues opened their seasons. Seven months of baseball was served up on the platter to American fandom today. Seasons in both big leagues close Oct. 7. Then comes the worlds series.
Great celebrations today in cities lucky drawing the opening games were held. The usual brass band parades with mayors, governors, and baseball magnates tossing out the first ball were scheduled. President Wilson is slated for this duty in Washington today if he can discard cares of state for the call of the horsehide.
Old Doc Weather was the big factor in today's baseball debut. Pass anxiously scanned the clouds this morning. At most cities the click of turnstiles was begun at noon. All cities reported "standing room only" on advance sales.
Mayor Mitchell promised to toss out the ball today at the Polo Grounds, where the Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers had a mammoth crowd awaiting the clang of the gong. "Big Six" Mathewson and Nap Rucker were slated for the mound. McGraw, however, was not fully decided and may substitute Tessa at the eleventh hour.

The world champs Boston Braves had the Phillies as their foes at Beantown, with a capacity crowd promised to welcome the champions. Manager Johnny Evers planned to pitch his Dick Endolph, but Tyler and James are "in the hole."

The Pirates were at Cincinnati to battle Charley Herzog's Reds and at Chicago, Roger Bresnahan's Cubs looked the West Side park with the Cardinals.

In the American League the Colossus, Bakerless Athletics opened Shibe Park with the Boston Red Sox, the latter picked by many fans as the probable American League pennant winners. Walter Donovan's rejuvenated Yankees, with King Cole as the probable pitcher for the latter.

With Eddie Collins in a White Sox uniform at second, the Chicago team will meet Branch Rickey's Browns at St. Louis, and Bayah Jennings Tiger heel up at Detroit with the Cleveland cellar champs.

Switches and trades, grafts and purchases since the season closed last fall gave fans renewed interest in the new line ups presented for the first time today. The Athletics showed the best radical change, with Nap Lajoie on second instead of Collins and Coombs, Bender and Plank absent from the pitchers roll.

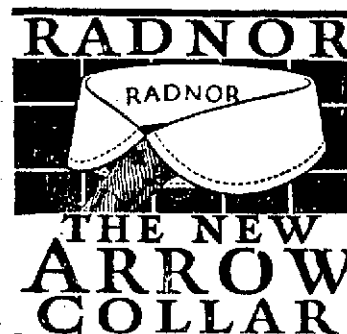

All managers made their usual ante-season pennant claims today, with all eight teams in each league co-main of the old race.

Tighter races are assured, however, in both leagues. The Giants and the Braves look to me like the class of the veteran organization, and the Red Sox and the White Sox in the Americans.

Sport Snap Shots

MORRIS MILLER

Bill Huey, Chicago cue expert who recently lost to George Moore of New York in the three-cushion billiard tourney in Chicago, is thinking of challenging Moore to another match. Instead of taking the $700 second

You'll want one

MOST of the fashionable young men you'll see in any group this spring will wear our Varsity Fifty Five suits.

Such men wear these suits because they get:

Quality: All wool, silk seams, best linings, Hart Schaffner & Marx tailoring.

Selection: Blues, grays, fancies, tartans, Glen Urquhart, everything they want.

Economy: High values at $25; others at $16.50 to $26—saving $5 to $10.

T. J. ZIEGLER CLOTHING CO.

JOSEPH M. CONNORS, Mgr.

Specialists of Good Clothes and Nothing Else. The Home of John B. Stetson Hats, Wilson Shirts, Lewis Underwear, Mallory Cravatted Hats, Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes.

There's really only one major league club that lays claim to having uncovered any phenoms in spring training this year. That club is the St. Louis Cardinals, and the baseball writers of that town are proclaiming

Lee Meadows, the bespectacled twirler, and Tommy Long, an outfielder, as the phenoms. Handicapped by that

"phenom" it wouldn't be surprising if both fell by the wayside before the season is very old.

Barrett Specification Roofs

Every permanent building, whether large or small, should carry a Barrett Specification Roof because it is the most economical roof known and one that will be free from leaks and maintenance expense.

Ask any experienced architect or engineer regarding this proposition and he will verify these statements.

Write us for estimates.

Sheldon Hardware Co.
6 So. Main St.

Don't stow this away under your hat. Use it!

Here's the dandy-handy package that's full of the tobacco that lets men know what a good time they can get out of a pipe or makings cigarette.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

is genuine pipe-joy plumb full of smoke happiness and that means flavor and fragrance and dream stuff. But the one thing that puts P. A. in solid is the famous patented process that has sent the tongue-torture kinds back to the hills. The patented process that makes P. A. so friendly is controlled exclusively by us. That's why we say there never can be another tobacco as biteless as P. A.

Prince Albert is sold at all smoke stations. The tidy red tin, 10c; the toppy red bag, 5c; also, pound and half-pound tin humidors.

Here's a hunch: We sure do recommend to our friends the 16-oz. crystal glass humidor with the sponge in the top that keeps P. A. in fine condition. One home, one at the office, always assures some smoke!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.
Winston-Salem, N. C.

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.
ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE
WIS. AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATUR-DAY EVENING.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Unsettled but generally fair to night and Thursday. Rising temperature in east portions.

Member of Associated Press.
Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations.
Member of Wisconsin Daily League.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

One Year	$6.00
One Month	.50
CASH IN ADVANCE
One Year	$5.00
Six Months	2.50
Three Months	1.25
BY MAIL
One Year	$4.00
Six Months	2.00
Three Months	1.00

RURAL DELIVERY IN ROCK COUNTY.
One Year $3.00
Six Months 1.50
Three Months .75

The publication of Obituary Notices, Resolutions, Cards of Thanks, etc., can be made at the per centage of 5 words each. Church and lodge announcements free. Insertion except those announcing an event for which a charge is to be made. These and subsequent insertions of any notice are made at the price.

The Gazette does not knowingly accept advertising of a questionable nature. Every advertisement in its columns is printed with full confidence in the character and reliability of the advertiser and the truth of the representations made. Readers of the Gazette will confer a favor if they will promptly report any failure on the part of an advertiser to make good any representation contained in a Gazette advertisement.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

In sending change of addresses for your paper be sure to give the present address as well as the new one. This will insure better and quicker service.

GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

GAZETTE MARCH CIRCULATION.

Days	Copies	Copies
1	7541	7541
2	7541	7541
3	7541	7541
4	7541	7541
5	7541	7541
6	7541	7541
7	7541	7541
8	7541	7541
9	7541	7541
10	7541	7541
11	7541	7541
12	7541	7541
13	7541	7541
14	7541	7541
15	7541	7541
16	7541	7541

263,824 divided by 27, total number of papers, 7,549 Daily Average.

This is a correct report of the circulation of the Janesville Daily Gazette for March, 1915, and represents the actual number of papers printed and circulated.

H. H. BLISS, Mgr.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of April, 1915.

O. C. HOMBERGER, Notary Public.

My commission expires July 26, 1918.

ITALIAN SENTIMENT.

While the statesmen, the cool heads who see beyond the present strife of arms, are opposed to Italy entering the European struggle, the people are anxious to have Italy take part. They have long cherished a resentment for Austria and would gladly welcome an opportunity to again control the territory wrested from them in 1856 by Austria. Like France, they cherish a grievance for lost lands. They have no resentment against Germany. Austria has always been their enemy and while they had a treaty, offensive and defensive, with both Germany and Austria, they really did not ever expect to be called upon to make good as it were. Italy has long been preparing for a war. Perhaps with no especial country, but just on general principles. Like most Latin people they must have an outlet for their excess energy. They need a safety valve as it were and in building up their army they have built up their navy as well. It is a matter of sentiment with them and the five dreadnaughts which will form the Duke of the Abruzzi's squadron, have for Italians sentimental as well as naval interest.

The most formidable fighting machine in the squadron, the Sala D'Ulivo, is named after the famous Roman admiral and consul, Caius Duilius, who won the great naval battle with the Carthaginians off Mylae, Sicily, in B. C. 264. The Calo Duilio was laid down in April, 1912, at Castellamare, and the Andrea Doria, a sister ship, named after the famous Genoese admiral and statesman of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, at Spezia.

Each of these has 22,000 tons displacement, a complement of 957 men, and a recorded speed of 22.5 knots an hour—although the maximum speed of Italian warships is a secret—and each carries thirteen 12-inch, sixteen 6-inch, and eighteen 3-inch guns. A broadside can be delivered by all the 12-inch guns or eight can be trained ahead and five astern.

These ships are also provided with three torpedo tubes and the last word in torpedo defense in the shape of a patent net with bombs. Ordinarily they would not have been ready for service before next May; but work on them was hastened; they had their speed trials toward the end of January, and their gun trials a month later. The Calo Duilio was placed in commission on March 1, and her sister ship is to follow as soon as the officers and crew can be assembled.

The duke will also have under his command the three sister dreadnaughts—the Conte di Cavour, named after Victor Emmanuel II's great premier; the Giulio Cesare, and the Leonardo da Vinci, the latter named after the great Florentine painter, poet and engineer of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, who was also one of the first naval architects of his time.

These three are of the same size as the Calo Duilio, but their armaments, aside from the thirteen 12-inch guns, are different, they having eighteen 4.7-inch and fourteen 3-inch guns. They were completed last year.

The fifth dreadnaught, the Dante Alighieri, is, as befits the namesake of the great Italian poet and wanderer, in a class by herself. She has a displacement of 18,400 tons, and a complement of 900 officers and men. She was completed in 1912, with twelve 12-inch, twenty 4.7-inch and thirteen 3-inch guns. Her length is 550 feet, being only twenty-seven feet less than that of the others.

The enormous annihilating force of the duke's five dreadnaughts may be calculated when it is known that they can simultaneously discharge a broadside of sixty-four 12-inch guns at a target every minute and a half, delivering a mass of shells weighing 51,200 pounds.

A LINGERING SPRING.
When the little boys in country villages begin playing marbles people feel sure spring is at hand. They have been playing for some time, yet the air does not carry the breath of spring. Only the faintest signs of the new life are seen, where there should be bursting buds among the lilacs and magnolias. Even the cold-defying through the ground.

From reports to hand, independent of the United States weather bureau, it appears that Mistress Spring has lingered in the lap of Winter at least two weeks longer than usual. Farm work, therefore, is making slow progress. It not unduly prolonged this backwardness can be quickly made up when the sun once gets warmed up to its work. While normal conditions are always preferable, yet it is better to have the cold now than later in the season. There is no occasion yet for the grain markers to listen to bull stories of a late spring.

There are wide complaints of deficiency in moisture, seemingly well founded. There has been less than the average moisture in the snowfall, the country through. The winter wheat could not be expected to show anything but a lower condition than that of a year ago. The soil appears to be too dry in the central west, particularly Indiana and Ohio, and spring rains and sunshine are needed to hurry vegetation. Throughout the other important parts of the wheat belt the general run of reports coincides. But the wise farmer knows that cold, dark weather in the first week or so of April is not a menace. It is the opposite if, later, it is followed by sunshine and plenty of rain. A deaf ear can be turned to the predictions of the alarmist at this stage of the season.

The legislature is again in session grinding out legislation, and the insidious lobby is also present at Madison with its sly insinuations and suggestions to legislators as to what bill should be passed and what should be defeated. It is a fine lesson for embryo statesmen to watch the work of the educators of the state doing their sly work through diverse and sundry means and then have confidence in mankind and the teachings after all.

Cement streets are a question that is attracting the attention of the city fathers at present. They realize that cement streets are here to stay and appreciate the fact that it will be a saving in the end if they are established. However it is best not to go too fast and an experiment will not be taken amiss: just to see if the Janesville sand and gravel is entirely fitted for the construction of such roads.

This swat the fly campaign is progressing rather slowly owing to the fact that the flies have not yet been apprised of the fact that spring has really arrived. However we may expect bigger returns to the youthful hunters' pocketbooks in the immediate future when the crop becomes more plentiful and a few fly traps are put in operation.

Now is the time for the street commissioner, the sidewalk inspector, or any such personage if he exists, to go around and inspect some of the sidewalks in the city. Let him start right on the city property in the Court House park and order down a new walk or two for the comfort of the pedestrians that have to use them.

Where is the Civic League and its work in compelling live property owners to clean up their river banks? It is time to start this work when the rest of the citizens are making their houses clean and it certainly would improve the looks of the city wonderfully.

Farmers are complaining of the late spring. A little later we may hear others echoing a similar complaint. Weather conditions hit more trades than one in the long run. Meantime let us be content that it is not any worse than it is.

President Wilson issues a strong argument for golf when he says he manages to keep in condition by playing the good old game. It should be an argument in favor of joining the Sinnissippi Golf club and playing the game right here at home.

So Duley Malone, inspector of the port of New York, has been notified to stop talking about foreign cruisers receiving munitions of war and other supplies from the United States while lying off the coast beyond the three mile limit. Old Neutrality where is thy sting?

The Rock river fishermen have not succeeded in making any record-breaking catches. However, they have hopes and the hundreds who enjoy dangleing a line with a hook attached, in the waters, expect some day to make a rich haul that will surprise their friends.

The more lights the city of Janesville can establish the better it will be for the community as a whole. There are lots of dark spots left that a little light thrown on would not go a bit amiss.

Circus time is soon coming round, but let us hope that by the time the first show arrives there will be warm enough weather to at least sit out of doors for an afternoon without using furs.

THAT TIRED FEELING

Relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which Renovates the Blood.
That tired feeling that comes to you in the spring, year after year, is a sign that your blood lacks vitality, just as pimples, boils and other eruptions are signs that it is impure, and it is also a sign that your system is in a low or run-down condition inviting disease. It is a warning, which it is wise to heed.
Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old standard tried and true blood medicine relieves that tired feeling. It cleanses the blood, gives new life, new courage, strength and cheerfulness. It makes the rich red blood that will make you feel, look, eat and sleep better.
Be sure to get Hood's, because it is the best. There is no other combination of roots, barks and herbs like it—no real substitute for it—no "just-as-good" medicine.

On the Spur of the Moment

ROY K. MOULTON

How?
"For the next rainy day. Save your pennies, my lad." That is what my dear dad used to say years ago—
"Save your dough, save your dough."
When the grocer gets through And the coal dealer, too, And the butcher gets his As a matter of biz, And we've anted the price For the gas and the ice, And the fuel and the rent, We have not got a cent. Though philosophers rave, How are we going to save?

UNCLE ABNER.

Lem Higgins thought his electric lighting bill was too high and went to the office to kick about it. A gentleman sat down with him and explained it for four hours and when he got through Lem didn't know whether two and two makes four or whether the Brooklyn Bridge was over the East River or the Rio Grande. There are some things that the mind of the ordinary mortal cannot grasp and one of them is an electric lighting bill.
King Solomon had a thousand wives, but he had a sagacious son. Not one of 'em buttoned up the back. It seems as though if all of those terrible Turk wrestlers that are touring this country should go back home they could end the war in about five minutes in straight falls.
Convince a woman against her will and she's of the same—but what's the use? It can't be done.
No, siree.
There ain't nothing more pitiful looking than a paper mache stage turkey about the third season on the run.

Inconsiderate Woman.
Jones was one of those men who grumble at everything and everybody. He was once attacked by inflammatory rheumatism, and was carefully nursed by his wife, who was very devoted to him, in spite of his fault-finding disposition. His suffering caused her to treat him sometimes as she sat by his bedside.
One day a friend came in and asked him how he was getting on.
"Badly, badly," he exclaimed; "and it's all my wife's fault."
"Is it possible?" asked the friend in surprise.
"Yes. The doctor told me that humidity was bad for me, and there that woman sits and cries just to make it moist in the room."

What's the Use?
I thought that I might buy a car and zip around the countryside.

I went to see an agent and he took me for a nice long ride. Somehow the news got noised around and fifteen agents called on me. And took me out in brand new cars, their points of excellence to see.
This thing went all year around, and really folks it was immense. I toured all over half the state with a nickel of expense.
Why should I own a touring car? I am not missing any fun. I can go riding all the time with agents who would sell me one.

No Accounting for Tastes.
Another head for punishment. Arkansas man has gone back and married the same woman for the third time.

Saving Gasoline.
Headline in Michigan paper: "H. E. BENNETT PUSHING KRIT CAR IN BARRY CO."

It Can't Be Done.
Diplomats declare that conditions in Mexico City are worse than ever before. But how could they be that bad?

Not T. R.'S. He's Been Cured.
Occasionally you see in the paper the picture of a man who hasn't been cured of something.

Take Keer Yourself.
A little book shop has been opened in London by a poet who never had any previous business experience. Good night, little book shop.

SNAP SHOTS

It is all right and proper for a man to love his country, but do not fall into the common error of mistaking daddodde for patriotism.

The fear in the heart of every man who spends an evening down town is that his wife will sit up until he gets home.

What has become of the old-fashioned sport who first got drunk and then took a ride in a harse?

It is the intense partisan who believes that other people should be neutral.

"Buzz" Hoppood has long had the reputation of being the biggest fool in our town. "Buzz" once tried to drown himself by jumping into the river. But he took the precaution to buckle on a life preserver before making the jump.

Buck Kibbysays a woman policeman is the funniest thing in the world, but Eph Wiley doesn't look at it in that way. Eph says when you pin a star on a woman you merely give her an unlimited license to meddle with the business of her neighbors.

Daily Thought.
Let us wipe out the past, trust in the future—and rejoice in the glorious Now.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

KIRK'S FLAKE

WHITE SOAP

5¢

WASHES CLOTHES EASILY IN COLD WATER

When a man is through he is through. But woman still has a pile of dirty dishes to wash.

Considering what it gives in return, a legislature probably is the most expensive thing.

They say of Sim Heckle that he never tells a lie the same way twice in succession.

Tank Beverly says the most preposterous thing in the world is a woman clamoring for equal rights. Mr. Beverly takes the ground that women already have twice as many rights as the men.

NEW AUSTRALIAN ARMY FOR EGYPTIAN SERVICE FROM NEW SOUTH WALES.

Melbourne, Australia, April 14.—The Third Australian Expeditionary Force to consist of 10,000 men which will leave the Commonwealth for the front in April will be made up largely of recruits from New South Wales and this state (Victoria). Each state will contribute about 140 officers and 4,000 men. Reinforcements for the 30,000 Australian troops already in the field will accompany the contingent. Light horse and infantry will constitute the bulk of the force.

Some of the officers and men in this latest force from Australia have already seen service in German New Guinea, but it was almost altogether of a garrison kind as the fighting there last September was done mainly by land reserves.

Daily Thought.
Let us wipe out the past, trust in the future—and rejoice in the glorious Now.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Rehberg's

New Silk Shirts

A beautiful collection of new silk shirts for spring wear; a bewildering array of colors; an assortment the equal of this cannot be found in Southern Wisconsin. Tub Silk Shirts; exceptionally good values; $3.00, $3.50 and up to $5.00.

Silk Fibre Shirts; a snap for the man who wants a silk shirt of better than usual quality but doesn't want to pay more than $3.50.

Pongee Shirts, $1 to $2.50. These shirts are all furnished with the double turn back French cuffs.

ELECTRIC LIGHT BATH

for all Acute and Chronic troubles. Ladies' and Gents' departments. Office hours 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m. every day but Saturday. Closed Fri. day night and open Saturday night and all day Sunday.

TURKISH BATH PARLORS
111 Court St., facing the park. R. C. Phone Red 485. Bell Phone 936.

Clearing the Way.
Norwich—"So she now looks forward to a perfectly happy life?" Mrs. Newrick—"Yes. She has snubbed the last of the old friends who knew her in the early days when she was poor."—Town Topics.

There are always bargains to be found in the classified columns.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE NOW HAVE A STOCK OF PURE SPRING FED LAKE ICE

on hand and are ready to make prompt deliveries. This ice is absolutely pure and just what is wanted for family use.

Coupon Books may be purchased for $3, and you can buy ice as you need it. The three dollar book will purchase 1/2 ton of ice.

We wish to firmly impress the public with the fact that this company is in Janesville to stay. We are no fly-by-night concern as some would have you believe. We have several thousand dollars invested here, having purchased the fuel business of Wm. Buggs which we are going to conduct jointly with our ice business.

If you want pure lake ice, ice that will not be a menace to your health, just phone

Consumer's Pure Ice & Fuel Co.

N. River St. Both phones 407. C. B. Farnum, Sec'y. and Mgr.

APOLLO TONIGHT

7.30 and 9.00

HOBART BOSWORTH AND COURTENAY FOOTE IN

BUCK-SHOT JOHN

One of the most thrilling film successes of the season giving Mr. Bosworth unusual opportunities.

WITH A SWEET WHOLESOME LOVE STORY

A PARAMOUNT FEATURE. CHILDREN, 10c; ADULTS, 15c.

You Never Saw Greater Values at $15.00

We've put all of our knowledge of the clothing business back of the purchase of these

Suits For Men and Young Men at $15

They are made right and will give long service, besides being the acme of style perfection. Come in and look at them and you'll own one when you go out. Fashion Park Clothes, the finest Made-in-America Clothes, sell for $22.50 and $25 and are unapproachable for original style ideas.

Great value in Boys' Blue Serge Suits for $4.45.

THE HUB
Max M. Meisel & Co.
113 West Milwaukee St.
Opp. Corn Exchange

HATS FOR MEN

The Golden Eagle

LEVY'S

You Can Pick a Choice Hat Here Now

YOU'LL see all the new Spring colors in our hat department—especially the new pearl, blue and green shades.

STETSON, $3.50
IMPERIALS, $3.00
LEVY'S SPECIAL, $2.00
NEW SPRING CAPS, $1 and $1.50
BOYS' RAH HATS, 50c

Teeth Straightening

I am making a specialty of straightening irregular teeth. The very latest appliances and methods. Am getting the best results.

No longer need of going through life with ugly teeth.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS
(Over Rehberg's.)

All work fully guaranteed.

We Know That

A careful consideration of the business methods of

This Bank

and the personal service it renders its patrons, will lead you to conclude that it is to your advantage to do your banking with it.

3% ON SAVINGS

The First National Bank

Established 1855.

Chinamel Graining System

DEMONSTRATION

APRIL 15, 16 AND 17th
20c CAN FREE
with 10c brush on above dates.
CARL W. DIEHL
26 W. Milwaukee St.
H. L. McNAMARA
2024 W. Milwaukee St.

NICK SKOTIBAS SHOE PARLORS

South Franklin Street corner.
Shoes shined; hats cleaned.

Soft hats, 50c; stiff hats, 35c, 45c.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

A LITTLE READY MONEY

Means much to the man or woman who must earn their own living. The need of it is always present; now and then it is needed very badly. Sickness or accident may stop your earnings for a while. You may want money to build a home, or to take advantage of a good investment. Opportunity often comes to the man with the ready money. It is the only sure protection against poverty or want.

Open a Savings Account with us; deposit whatever sum you can conveniently spare. Add to it each week or month—at the end of the year, the result will surprise you.

—THE—

BOWER CITY BANK

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Oak Kitchen Cabinet, $7.00; Ball Bearing Beach Winger with Tub, $8.00; Iron Bed Stand, white enameled with box spring, $13.00; Quartered Oak Bookcase, $5.00; Ladies' Mahogany writing desk, cost $17, will sell for $8.00; Sewing rocker $1.00; large oak rocker, $1.50; walnut stand, antique, $1.50; 1 cherry stand, $1. Inquire John Hampe, 23 N. Main St. 10-4-14-3t.

WANTED—Delivery boy. C. F. Barker, Riverview Park Grocery. 5-4-14-3t.

FOR SALE—One 9x12 rug, 6 dining chairs. Call forenoon, 310 E. Milwaukee St., upper flat. 10-4-14-3t.

HORSE CLIPPING and clippers sharpened. West Side Hitch Barn. 20-4-14-3t.

WANTED AT ONCE—Experienced laundry man by Lewis Knitting Co. 5-4-14-3t.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

The Woman's History club are invited to be the guests of the Eastern Star Study class at a lecture by Dr. W. S. Pickard of Chicago, to be given in the parlors of the Baptist church on Thursday, April 15th, at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

Royal Neighbors of Crystal Camp, No. 132, gave an after Easter party at East Side I. O. O. F. hall last evening, which was enjoyed by about seventy-five couples. Hatch's orchestra furnished the music. The camp will give another dance in the near future.

LAST GAME OF SEASON
The Company E team wants revenge and they declare they will have it Friday night at the rink.

W. R. C. ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION HELD

Charter Members Now Living in Janesville Are Honored at Special Exercises on Tuesday.

W. H. Sargent, W. R. C. celebrated their 30th anniversary yesterday afternoon at their hall. They were organized with twenty-one charter members and now have 121. Only two of the charter members are still in the city, Miss Ella Willis and Mrs. Elizabeth Trumble. They were escorted to the platform, given the corps salute, and the president, Jennie Lester, in a neat little speech presented each with a souvenir from the corps. Mrs. Trumble with a gold recognition pin of the order, and Miss Willis with a handsome piece of china, as she already possesses a pin.

A postal card shower was also given for the past president, Mrs. Emma Winslow, the occasion being her birthday; also Comrade Lander. A fine history of the corps was written up by Miss Willis, who has been with it from the beginning and held nearly every office in the corps, including two terms as president. The following program was given, after which all enjoyed refreshments, served by the corps.

Piano Solo—Mrs. Agnes Winslow. History of the Corps—Ella Willis. Song—It's a Long Way to Tipperary—By Masters Harry and Marvin Mason. Piano and violin accompaniment by Florence Hunt and Adele Mason.

Reading—Description of the Grand Army Badge—Mrs. Carman.

Music from three members of the grade school orchestra. Piano, Bernice Grigey; violin, Ruth Roberts; George Barthnot, Sidney Bliss and Richard Barnsworth.

Recitation—Lizzie Kemmerer.

Duet—Piano and violin—Florence Hunt and Adele Mason.

GIVEN YEAR'S TERM FOR WIFE DESERTION

Unusual Number of Desertion Cases in Municipal Court During the Last Two Months.

The fifth case of wife desertion in the municipal court within the last two months was recorded this morning, when Henry Dabson was arraigned on the charge of leaving his wife and five small children in destitute circumstances. He waived his right to preliminary examination and pleaded guilty. Judge Maxwell imposed a year's sentence under the commitment law and during the term Dabson's wages will go to his wife.

It was reported by District Attorney S. G. Dunwiddie that Dabson failed to provide means for the support of his family and that the mother was forced to labor to support the family. "The conditions were reversed for a year at least," declared Judge Maxwell on passing sentence.

Edward Ludwig paid a fine of two dollars and costs in the municipal court for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk yesterday afternoon. The arrest was made by Motorcycle Policeman Lorenzo Cain.

FAVOR SUFFRAGE IN STATE BEFORE COMMITTEE

Madison, Wis., April 14.—Mrs. H. M. Humans, Waukesha; Mrs. Ben Hooper, Oshkosh, and Assemblyman W. C. Bradley, Hudson, urged passage for the Bradley bill extending women's right of suffrage, yesterday afternoon before the state affairs committee of the assembly. The women representatives condemned the Kucharski bill penalizing voters, men and women, who fail to vote in the primaries, and the Eudowyn amendment taking the power right away from women if the right of suffrage is granted them. It was pointed out that states where equal suffrage has been given allow even greater rights of women in their husbands' property than do other states, and that Wisconsin would take a step backward to restrict the present privilege in this respect.

Skating Friday night at rink.

ARGUE DEMURRER THURSDAY BEFORE SUPREME COURT IN HULL VS. DOHENY CASE

Attorneys representing the contending parties in the case of S. C. Hull vs. John Doheny, Jr., against Philip Doheny, Jr., of Janesville, and others, an alleged land fraud case involving a consideration of some $12,000, will argue a demurrer granted to the defendants by Judge Grimm in the state supreme court tomorrow.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING AT ORFORDVILLE IN PROSPECT

Plans and specifications for a new $13,000 school building at Orfordville will be started. The new structure will be erected on the site of the present building. The grounds will be added by the purchase of an adjoining tract of three and a half acres.

OBITUARY

Miss Helen Sughraua. Friends in this city will be grieved to learn of the death of Miss Helen Sughraua at her home in Crystal Lake, Illinois, Tuesday morning. Death came after an illness of heart trouble, lasting for six months. Miss Sughraua was formerly a resident of this city, where she attended the high school. She was about 28 years of age.

The remains will pass through Janesville to Monroe Thursday morning, where interment will be held. The deceased leaves a mother, father and one sister. Short services will be held at Crystal Lake tomorrow morning.

Mrs. William Aikln. Funeral rites for Mrs. William Aikln were held Tuesday afternoon at the family residence, 325 Scotch street. Rev. Bernard of the Whitehead Congregational church conducting the services, and being assisted by Rev. C. E. Ewing of this city. The burials will be held Friday morning at 9:30 at St. Mary's church at Milton Junction and interment will be made in Mt. Olivet cemetery in this city. Rev. J. J. McGinnity will conduct the service at the junction.

Mrs. John Palmer. Mrs. John Palmer passed away at eleven-thirty this morning at her home on Clear Lake avenue, Milton Junction, Wisconsin. She was an old resident of the village. Three daughters and one son are left. They are: Mesdames Mary Weaver and Agnes O'Connor of Milton Junction and Nellie Deming of New York City, and Dr. John M. Palmer, Gray's Lake, Ill. Funeral will be held Friday morning at 9:30 at St. Mary's church at Milton Junction and interment will be made in Mt. Olivet cemetery in this city. Rev. J. J. McGinnity will conduct the service at the junction.

BASKETBALL FRIDAY NIGHT
Company E plays the final game of the season at the Rink Friday night. Last and best.

Now is the time to get rid of any household article you do not wish to store or have no use for.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. William Adams was the guest of Mrs. Charles Young of South Acad street yesterday.

William McDermott, of 1 North Terrace street, is spending the day at Green Bay.

Mrs. C. J. Roberts, of 402 North Blue street, attended the county convention of the W. C. T. U. society held at Milton Junction today.

Miss Dorothy Davies, who has been visiting at the home of her cousin, Miss Virginia Doshadis, for the past few days, returned to her home in Milwaukee today.

Rev. J. A. Robinson, pastor of the United Brethren church, left today for Bloomer, Wis., where he will assist in special evangelistic meetings for about two weeks. Rev. C. J. Roberts, the former pastor and now conference superintendent, will be acting pastor during his absence and will look after the interests of the local church.

Mrs. Frances Child returned to Valparaiso University Monday, after spending a few days at home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Butts and their guest, Mrs. David Horn, spent yesterday in Evansville with friends.

Mrs. John Rixford and Mrs. William Sherer will leave on Thursday for Washington, D. C., where they will attend the meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution, held in that city.

Mrs. Rexford, held in that city. Mrs. Rexford, held in that city.

Mrs. J. A. Sutherland of Dodge street will entertain a ladies' card party on Thursday afternoon, April 15th.

Philip Carney is visiting his parents, on Prospect avenue, for a few days.

Mrs. A. M. Rokenbrodt of Avalon was the guest on Tuesday of Mrs. and Mrs. C. E. McCarthy of West Milwaukee street.

Mrs. Edward Peterson of Pleasant street spent the day on Tuesday in Chicago.

Mrs. Wilbur Kline of Broadhead is at Mercy Hospital, in this city. She is reported as doing nicely.

Miss Dorothy Wilcox came home from Edgerton to spend the day.

Mrs. Jessie Pruner is home from Northwestern University, Chicago, for a few days.

The ladies of the John F. Reynolds Circle No. 41 of the G. A. R. went to the city on Tuesday to see the new building at the 3 o'clock train.

Mr. Joseph Opie of Austin, Minnesota, is visiting at the home of Superintendent and Mrs. H. C. Buell, of South Jackson street.

Mrs. Joseph M. Kline of Beloit has returned home, after spending a short time in this city.

Mrs. George Davey of Pearl street went to Madison today to visit for a week with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Cook.

Mrs. Lord of Kenosha, Illinois, who has been spending several days in this city on business, returned home today.

Benjamin Jackson of South Franklin street has returned from a visit with relatives in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin.

Mrs. B. F. Nowlan of St. Lawrence avenue is spending the week in Chicago, the guest of Dr. Twing Wiggin and wife.

J. C. Chapman of Milwaukee is a business caller in this city today.

W. G. Williams of Rockford, is spending the day in Janesville.

E. F. Kline of Watertown, Wisconsin, transacted business in this city today.

E. P. Fry of Milwaukee is a Janesville visitor today.

George Cullen and family have moved from the Cullen flats on Milwaukee avenue to Fifth avenue.

Mrs. A. C. Kent of the La Vista flats has gone to Chicago, where she will visit relatives for a week.

Mrs. Thomas Wallis of 316 East Milwaukee street entertained an audience of three this afternoon.

After the game refreshments were served. Edwin P. Carpenter is in Milwaukee. He went to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, the late Mrs. Matthew Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baker of North High street are spending several days in Chicago with relatives and friends.

R. G. McClintock of Milwaukee is a business caller in this city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drake have returned to Janesville following a visit of five weeks at Pacific coast points.

John M. Whitehead left this morning on a business trip to Milwaukee.

F. E. Brigham has left for a business trip of three weeks at Iowa points.

George O. Buchholz is at La Crosse and Sparta on a business trip.

Nathan Seltzer of Chicago, formerly of this city, has returned to his home following a business trip of several days here.

William Ruser, Jr., spent today at Burlington.

John Bathers was an Edgerton business caller today.

Mrs. George Davey has gone to Madison to visit relatives.

Harvey Bower of Milwaukee, was in Janesville today on business.

At the Janesville Toy Shop Friday night at the Myers.

TEACHERS' INSURANCE LAW IS HELD VALID

Attorney General Decides That Retirement Fund of Educators Still Holds Good.

Madison, April 14.—Attorney General Owen upheld the validity of the teachers' insurance and retirement fund law, thus confirming the opinion rendered in 1913 by Attorney General Bancroft to State Treasurer Dahl.

The same reasons as given in his ruling of holding the state life fund law on Monday Mr. Owen declined to give co-operation in starting an action to challenge the validity of this law.

He also said there is no ground for fear that this law will result in a confusion or diversion of any constitutional trust fund such as was dealt with in the forestry case.

To District Attorney Dunwiddie of Rock county, Mr. Owen said the failure of village election officials to endorse ballots cast does not render the election invalid and even if the election is invalid there is no way of testing it in the court.

CLOSE OFFICES IN MEMORY OF LINCOLN

Washington, April 14.—Inquiries came to the White House today from heads of several government departments as to whether the president's executive order that all government offices be closed tomorrow on fiftieth anniversary of the death of Lincoln apply to all federal government branches, except where pressing public business would be interfered with, must be closed.

The president's order as far as can be learned is first recognition in this way of an anniversary of the death of a president.

Holiday hours will be observed as far as practicable in all postoffices tomorrow. Postmaster General Burleigh ordered today that all offices close at least part of the day.

Milton Junction News

Milton Jct., April 14.—The W. C. T. U. held a convention at the S. D. E. church yesterday. A picnic dinner was served.

I. P. Hinkley was a business caller at Sharon yesterday.

Mrs. Sidney Mabson and Miss Gladys Keith were in Janesville yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stone were in Madison Tuesday.

Miss Violet Sharpe of Afton is visiting at the Moriarty home.

The Eastern Star will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting in their lodge rooms tonight.

Miss Winifred Goodrich substituted in Mrs. Crall's place Monday.

L. G. Stone was in Janesville yesterday.

CONSOLIDATION BILL FOR AGRICULTURAL BOARD IN HEARING

Attorney Gilbert and Senator Whitman Decry Efforts of State Employees.

Madison, Wis., April 14.—Senator Platt Whitman of the legislative investigation committee, and his attorney, Frank L. Gilbert, decry efforts of state employees to ascribe political motives to the committee's program of consolidation of boards.

The consolidation bill had its first hearing before the assembly committee on agriculture yesterday afternoon. It was a board of three members, branded a political board, Mr. Gilbert said, the same charge might as well be made concerning the railroad commission.

After criticizing former Governor McGovern for making five appointments to the board of agriculture at the close of his term, Mr. Gilbert asserted that a board of thirteen members, the present quota, selected from all parts of the state, has much more possibility of political machinations than a small, paid board.

Mr. Gilbert charged that county agricultural societies have padded their premiums in order to get large portions of state aid. To representatives of existing state boards whose duties are merged by the committee bill, he said they ought to be willing to relinquish their positions to the board to act as an accounting medium for the moneys they receive and disburse.

Mr. Gilbert also addressed himself to critics who thought the bill removes the civil service regulations from employees under the proposed consolidations. It is true, he said, that the bill removes the civil service law, but he said the latter works automatically, bringing all employees, except such as are specifically exempted, under its terms.

"This bill is much misunderstood," said Mr. Gilbert in opening, "and many who oppose it seek to befog the situation. It is a strange thing that the greater opposition to the bill is recommended by the investigating committee comes from men in the employ of present boards and commissions."

These bills are the honest, mature judgment of men who are seeking the best solutions of our economic ills in our state government. Some of the members of these departments actually seem to think the permanency of our government depends upon the existence of their departments."

Mr. Gilbert declared that if the board as at present composed is not a political weapon, it is to be one of its principal objects, and he intimated it would have been courteous in the outgoing governor to allow the new executive to fill vacancies.

Senator Whitman took up the features of the bill which affect the several boards proposed to be merged. He paid compliment to the commissioner of immigration, H. G. Packer, for his efficient work, and said that he should like very much to see him retained as an arm of the new board, but insisted that to combine the department's duties with the new board would not destroy but would increase its effectiveness. It is intended also to place the work of the livestock sanitary board and state veterinarian on a more permanent footing, he said, by combining its activities with those of other agricultural agencies.

Considerable importance was attached by Senator Whitman to the new board auditing powers. He mentioned the state dairyman's association, livestock breeders' association, apiary inspection board, butter-makers' and cheese-makers' associations, potato growers, horticultural society and other bodies retaining state aid, and said that it proposed to exercise an audit over their financial affairs rather than to do anything to restrict their administration.

Like Mr. Gilbert, Senator Whitman believed a strong check should be put on county fairs in their disbursement of state money based on premium showings.

"The underlying principle in the combination of allied functions in one board," he said, "is the goal which we are seeking to reach. The committee is not here to destroy but to build up the activities of the state of the first year."

He said that $30,000 should provide for the needs of the new board for the first biennium.

PUBLIC QUESTIONS IN LEGISLATURE; FAVOR VICE BILLS

Anti-Pandering Bill is Reported for Passage But Postponed—Committee Even on Suffrage Measure.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Madison, April 14.—Announcement of action of various committees on large public questions featured today's session of the legislature. The women's suffrage bill, which the Mann act apply to Wisconsin communities were reported for passage and indefinite postponement, respectively.

Several other of the anti-vice bills received favorable action by the senate committee while still others were not approved.

The women's suffrage bill was reported to the house without recommendation, the committee standing even in the proposition.

The anti-tipping bill, amended to be effective September 1, passed both houses and is now up to the governor. Pensioning of judges was hit when the senate killed the Ackley bill.

A high tuition bill affecting non-resident university students, is now up to the senate, the assembly refusing to change its attitude upon motion for reconsideration.

The assembly killed a bill making the Milwaukee municipal court a circuit court, the measure having the support of the State Bar association.

Never Time for Content. The men who do big things in the world and lead the way to success for others are never quite contented. Whenever a man is willing to let well enough alone he has struck 12 and his life of usefulness is practically over.

NEW UNITED STATES ENVOY TO URUGUAY

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

Robert Emmett Jeffrey.

FAIR STORE

EARLY OHIO SEED POTATOES, BU. 75c

Pure seed and good size.

Spring Sale

Second floor.

Women's new spring styles in patent leather pumps in the 3-bar pumps, the Colonial, the Valliere, at $2.45.

Women's Patent Leather lace shoes with cloth tops, in gray, nigger brown or black, at $2.45.

Women's patent leather button shoes with black cloth tops in plain or tipped toe, at $2.45.

Women's gun metal button shoes in plain toe and high heel or medium heel and round tipped toe, at $2.45.

Girls' patent leather button shoes, black cloth tops, also mat calf tops, at $2.45 to $1.50; 11 to 12 at $1.95.

Young ladies' patent leather button shoes with black cloth tops, at $2.45. Girls' school shoes in violet kid or gun metal, at $1.50 and $1.95.

Boys' gun metal or violet kid button shoes size 9 to 1

WOMAN'S PAGE

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH S. CAMERON

MARY JANE OR ROSALIE CECILIA?
A letter friend suggested to me the other day that it would be a splendid idea if children were called not names in their babyhood and permitted to name themselves after they grew up.

"My mother named me Rosalie Cecilia," she writes. "I look and act like Mary Jane. I am large, square and matter-of-fact. When people hear my name they always laugh. I have tried to be called Cecilia as the lesser of two evils and I sign it over. But people want to hear what the R. stands for and that annoys them more than ever. The fact is that because my mother was so romantic over her first little pink and white baby that a sensible, plain, unromantic woman should be burdened with a name like that?"

No wonder she feels strongly. But as I am writing this, my letter friend advocates this reform.

A name like that of a person which doesn't fit is as out of place and awkward as the airs and furbelows of sweet sixteen on plain, angular and forty. It isn't so bad when the mistake is the other way round. Mary Jane imposed upon a girl who is a Rosalie Cecilia in heart and appearance is like a demure Quaker costume on a very pretty girl, it gives an added piquancy to her charm.

But as to letting the young folks name themselves—at what age, pray, should they be permitted to exercise this function? The scheme is one which has suggested itself to me several times, but I always paused in the face of the difficulty.

Would the names we choose at twelve or sixteen be any more suitable to our matured selves than the choice of our adoring parents?

When we were about twelve a group of us girls had a club and one of its most delightful features was that we club members knew each other not by the names inflicted upon us by our parents, but by names of our own choosing. One girl was Lily, another Violet, another Millicent, another Vivienne, while I rejoiced in the cognomen of Phyllis.

But we are reconciled now.

As you may suspect, I certainly am not sorry now that I was not permitted to name myself at that age. How the other club members feel I do not absolutely know, but I have my suspicions, particularly as two of them have already named their daughters their own formerly despised names, Joan and Anne.

Perhaps twenty would be a picturesque and appropriate time for a young person to select his name—just as he stepped into his majority. But I'm not sure that even then he would like the name the rest of his life. Besides, any former name would have become irrevocably glued to his personality by that time.

I sympathize with you with all my heart, Mary Jane that should have been, but I just can't devise any new way that would be materially better than the old. Can you?

Questions and Answers.

Question: A letter friend writes that she still clings to the feeling I'm a man because a woman doesn't. Don't I agree with her?

Reply:—I know you mean to compliment me, but please don't do it by running down my sex. The most logical, prejudiced person I know is a man. To be honest, the most logical is also a man but both of these facts are accidents of nature. There are logical men and logical women, and more of the latter every day. Men have formerly encouraged women to be illogical because they like to laugh at them and feel their own superiority, but I hope and trust they are growing out of that "bless their sweet eyebrows" but confound their intelligence" attitude.

Animal Jingles

FOR LITTLE FOLK

ANIMAL SCHOOL.

Said Schoolmaster Crab to his pupils one day:
"I'm going to make a new rule.
The first one who's tardy the least little bit
Will have to stay in after school."

"New bear this in mind, I won't tell you again,
And I'll take no excuses at all;
So don't fail to be here in plenty of time,
To respond to your name at roll call."

Next day when the children went into the school
They saw there was one vacant seat;
Then they looked out the door and saw Gerald Giraffe
Come sauntering along up the street.

They all held their breath for they thought he'd be late,
But this young Giraffe had no fear,
As he passed by a window and heard his name called
He poked in his head and said, "Here."

Then he walked in the door and sat down in his seat
As calm and as cool as could be,
Guess that's the time that I fooled that old Crab
By having a long neck," said he.

But Professor Crab said, "Since you feel that you've been So remarkably clever you may
Just turn right around and go outside and stand
With your head through the window all day."

So Gerald Giraffe had to stand just that way,
Though he certainly felt like a fool,
But it cured him entirely and after that day,
He was always the first one at school.

Copyright 1915 The Central Press Association.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I lost my fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give you more and more comfort as the months go by. New surroundings will help amazingly to renew your interest in life.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are girls between the ages of fifteen and sixteen and very fond of tennis. Do you think it proper for boys to take us home after playing? And do you think it proper for boys to take us home from the show?

FRANCIS, VIDA AND ARIEL.

It is all right for boys to take you home after playing tennis. But it is not all right for you to go to the show unless you are chaperoned by older people. Therefore it is entirely unnecessary for boys to see you home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

fifteen years of age and in the first year of high school. Do you think it am left heartbroken and discouraged, is right for a boy to nickname me not knowing what to do. I have four children of the ages of twelve, ten, nine and eight.

ten, nine and eight. I am considered a good housekeeper and can do many kinds of work. I am very neat, but I cannot enjoy any kind of work. My husband was the only one in the world I ever really cared for and the only man I can ever love. He was called away at the age of thirty-seven years. I live at present on a farm owned by my husband and his sisters and brothers.

Will you advise me what to do? I am left with a sum of money amounting to about four thousand dollars. I have two brothers out west who are married and would like to have me come and live with them. I have never been there and I do not think I would like it, although they are well to do. I would rather be with my husband than live for what this world has in store for me. The only thing I have to keep a spark of interest in life is my little children.

You must not lose courage; remember, you would hardly be expected to be strong and cheerful only two months after the loss of your husband. I would advise a change of environment. Go to your brothers at least for a while. You will have a comfortable living with them, and they may be able to invest your money satisfactorily. Those little children will give

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—You Can't Blame Father for What the Folks Imagine—

BY F. LEIPZIGER

THE BATTLE FRONT

Petrograd, Russia, April 14, via London.

The number of head and arm wounds of the men at the front is enormous. For men in trenches expose only their heads and arms. Many hundreds are hit in the head and death does not result from the wound. Occasionally one may see slightly wounded, walk back with heads bound up or arms in slings. Motor trucks loaded with wounded men along the roads leading back from the extreme front. Perhaps 50 percent of the wounded are back on the firing line after three months' care and rest in a hospital. It all depends on a man's health and blood. If the blood is pure and good, the soldier gets the first aid, proper treatment and his wounds heal by first intention.

Good blood is everything to every man. It means fresh strong nerves, good digestion, good circulation. Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery marvel at the way it checks blood diseases. See a man to-day with skin all broken out, see him a few weeks later after using the "Discovery," his skin is all cleared up, eyes bright, and he is contented with himself.

The foundation of good health is good blood. Are you pale? Are you weak? Are you no longer ambitious or energetic? Have you pimples or boils? Do you suffer from headaches, low spirits? Then you are anemic—your blood is thin, lacking in healthy, strength-giving red corpuscles. Then your blood is impure—and your liver is not up to its task of clearing the blood from the poisons accumulated.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a temperance remedy that will restore to you rich, health-giving blood—a remedy proved by experience (in tablet or liquid form). It is a glyceric extract of roots from our forests, known to science as those which will best give the stomach, liver and bowels needed help.—Advertisement.

Life's High Ideals

We have more or less, true ideals of what our own human life ought to be—of what opportunities we ought to have for the development of our faculties—of what home and school and college, youth and married life and old age, work and rest, ought to mean for ourselves and our families. We are to be as truly zealous and active for other classes or other individuals as we are for our own class or our own family or ourselves.—Charles Gore.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "luggish" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries brought about by Eckman's Alternative are attracting wide attention. Read about this case.

33 B St., Keyser, W. Va. "Gentlemen, I was taken sick in November, 1908. My chest ached, my throat was sore, and my head was worse. Had two consultations. The verdict was the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless. Only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to him trying Eckman's Alternative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever." (Abbreviated.)

(Signed) MRS. H. K. RILEY. Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and in building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Small size, $1; regular size, $2. Sold by leading druggists. Write for booklet of recoveries. Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia. Sold by Smith Drug Co., McCue & Buss and People's Drug Co., in Janesville.

When Billy Sunday Came to Town

By ALEXANDER CORKEY Copyright, 1913, by the H. K. Fly Co.

CHAPTER III.

A Vital Shock For Reginald.

THE home in which Allan Rutledge lived was in an imposing building in one of the best residential districts in Bronson. Reginald rang the bell and was greeted by the minister himself, who was evidently awaiting him, and who warmly welcomed him.

"This is my young son, Abraham," said the minister, introducing Reginald to a young boy of about three years of age. "He is a little fellow, but he is called after a great man. He is a namesake of Abraham Lincoln."

Reginald noticed Allan Rutledge regarding his little son with tear moistened eyes.

"My hope and prayer for my boy," he said earnestly in answer to the other's look, "is that he will be worthy to bear the name of Abraham Lincoln."

"He will be a noble man assuredly if he acquires a character like the noble Lincoln," responded Reginald, becoming serious. "Do you know that it was the life of Abraham Lincoln which first gave me a glimpse of what democracy means and of what life really is."

They were interrupted by a lady entering the room carrying a baby in her arms. She was a gracious looking woman, quite young in appearance, with light flaxen hair and lustrous blue eyes.

"Come in and meet the young Englishman."

"He held the close attention of them all."

"I am pleased to meet you, Mrs. Rutledge. What a lovely baby you have!" he added, looking with admiration at the child in his mother's arms.

Allan Rutledge took the child in his arms, saying: "This is our daughter, Anna. She, too, is called after a noble woman. Do you remember in the life of Abraham Lincoln that pathetic romance of his early days?"

"You mean the romance of Lincoln and Anne Rutledge?" responded Reginald quickly.

"Yes," said the minister. "Anne Rutledge was the sister of my grandfather, and I am proud of my Rutledge blood."

"You may well be," exclaimed the Englishman. "I would rather have the blood of the Rutledges in my veins than that of titled lords."

Allan Rutledge thought that the young man spoke the last words rather bitterly.

When they were left alone, Allan Rutledge turned to his guest seriously and said, "I expect you have brought a church letter with you from your old home."

"No," answered the other stammeringly. "I did not go to church much in England."

"Ah!" responded the other in a somewhat disappointed tone. "My family, of course, were church people," replied Reginald, looking frankly at the minister, "and I was confirmed in the Episcopal Church of England as a boy, but I lost faith in churches."

"Lost faith in churches?" "Listen to me, Dr. Rutledge," said the young Englishman, speaking with such intensity that the minister looked at him closely. "There was a temperance bill before parliament last winter, which would have been a blessing to every part of England. This bill was defeated through the opposition of clergymen who owned brewery stocks. More than that," continued the youth, "clinging his fist and unconsciously raising his voice, 'our archbishop of Canterbury was lately asked what his views were in regard to the labor problem that presses for solution in England, and he answered unabashed that he worked seventeen hours a day over the organization of the church and had no time left to think of the labor problem. I liked Keir Hardie's reply to the archbishop," continued Reginald after a pause. "He plainly told him that a religion which demanded seventeen hours a day for organization and left no time for a single thought about starving and despairing men and women and children had no message for this age."

Allan Rutledge changed the subject again by speaking of his native state of Iowa.

The minister saw that the young man now felt entirely at home with him and he asked him seriously, "Will you help us in our work of the Central church, Mr. Nelson? We need young men like you and the time for you to begin church activity is now."

"But I am not a member of the church," he replied hesitatingly.

"We will see about your membership later. Meanwhile, do you think you could sing in the choir regularly?" Miss Joy, one of our prominent young members, suggested your name to me today. She seems to have taken quite an interest in your welfare."

Reginald blushed and answered quickly, "You know I met Miss Joy Graham on the boat coming across the Atlantic. She has given me an invitation to the choir herself. I think I can join the choir."

It was an apt scene to which Reginald Nelson was introduced in the Graham home. The Tourist club was composed of about forty young people of both sexes.

Two of the older young men were standing side by side in an alcove and after Joy Graham had introduced our hero to them, one of the two, whose name was George Caldwell, inquired of the other: "Who is that young man? He has the look and bearing of an English lord."

"Fahs!" answered the other, whose name was Roland Gregory, "he's nothing but an ordinary immigrant. Miss Joy happened to meet him on the boat going across the Atlantic and she is going foolish over him. I will have to stop it."

These two young men, Roland Gregory and George Caldwell, were the leaders among the young people in the social circle connected with the Central church. Both of them were about twenty-five years of age and mature for their years. Roland Gregory's father was now one of the wealthiest men in the city. He had started his son in business, and the young man was manager and part owner of a large manufacturing plant. This plant employed mainly women and girls, and it was some of his employees who had been arrested for picketing and to whom Reginald Nelson had taken flowers in jail.

The other young man, George Caldwell, was the son of a farmer who lived a few miles from Bronson. The young man had come to the city a few years before and entered one of the banks. Being capable and trustworthy, his rise had been rapid, and he was now the assistant cashier.

"Good evening, Vivian," said George Caldwell familiarly to a robust, rosy cheeked girl whom he approached after leaving young Gregory. "How are the folks at home?"

"Glad to see you again, George," replied the girl heartily.

"Who is this fine Englishman that Joy is totting around tonight?" asked the girl.

"Come along, then, and I will introduce you before the program of the evening begins," said the young man.

The girl who had this conversation with George Caldwell was Vivian Derwent, whose home was in the country not far from that of her companion.

Like Joy Graham and Roland Gregory, these two had also been brought up together.

"Excuse me, Mr. Nelson," said young Caldwell, addressing the immigrant, "but here is Miss Derwent, one of our young ladies who has just come in. She wanted to meet the Hon of the evening."

"There is nothing likelier about me," replied the Englishman, with a smile. "They told me you were an Englishman," said Vivian, with a little coyness, "and you know we associate the lion with England."

"But you are an American," replied Reginald in bantering tones, "and yet I would not think of associating you with an eagle. I would associate you with a bird of paradise."

Vivian Derwent blushed at the compliment.

A little later Reginald was presented to the company by George Caldwell, who made a brief speech, telling of his recent arrival from England, and the pleasure which the Tourist club had in being honored with the presence of a real Englishman to conduct them through London. Another prolonged round of applause greeted Reginald when he arose to give his talk about England's mightiest city.

He had prepared a rough sketch of the city, which he hung on the wall and explained first of all.

After a brief historical introduction he began his description of modern London, picturing its streets, parks and buildings. Joy noticed at once that he was no novice at public speaking and held the close attention of them all.

He described the Tower of London, St. Paul's cathedral, Westminster abbey, the houses of parliament and the other chief places of interest to actual tourists when traveling abroad. His description of Marlborough palace was especially vivid and his audience realized at once he was portraying what he himself had actually seen as he told of the magnificence of its furnishings and even pictured in detail a royal reception in the palace.

As Reginald was walking home with Miss Derwent he asked her in regard to Roland Gregory.

"Oh, Roland is getting to be a regular bore," said the girl. "He used to be a fine young man, but he is now manager of that factory where the women have been having a strike, and the girls he puts on are ridiculous."

"He seems to be quite a friend of Miss Graham's," said Reginald, trying to speak in matter of fact tones.

"They have been friends all their lives," answered Vivian Derwent, innocently. "They are engaged to be married."

"Engaged to be married!" exclaimed Reginald, in such horror struck tones of astonishment that his companion started.

"Yes," she replied, turning to look at her escort. "They were engaged just before Joy started for Paris. What's the matter, Mr. Nelson?"

With an effort Reginald controlled himself, steeled his walk and answered, "I felt dizzy for a moment."

Reginald Nelson thought that the walk to the dormitory of the Normal school was never going to end. Fortunately Vivian Derwent kept up a chatter of conversation, doing almost all of the talking until she left him.

He walked home slowly and meditatively.

"What a fool I am to care whether Joy Graham is engaged or not!" something within him seemed to say. "I have only known her for two weeks. What's the matter with me? This American atmosphere has taken me off my feet!"

"My God, Joy Graham engaged! No hope for me at all," another voice seemed to answer in despair. "I never knew until tonight how beautiful she was. I cannot bear to think she belongs to another."

"Reginald Nelson, come to your senses," the first voice responded. "What are you doing? Here you come out to America to do something for your fellowmen. You leave home, friends, prospects, behind you. Once in America you begin mooning like a schoolboy after the first pretty face you see. For shame, Reginald Nelson!"

But the second voice would not be downed. "Engaged to be married," it wailed.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

GOLF TALKS

Fred—Do you know much about golf?

Ed—Absolutely nothing. Why, I wouldn't even know how to hold my caddy properly.

something of the sort. She gambled with fate and lost out. She's a good loser. She hasn't squealed once."

"Squealed? I hate that word."

"I hate squealer worse," said he. "But seriously, it knocks me all out whenever I think of her. I've hesitated about speaking to father, dear. You see, I'm in rather a delicate position. Six weeks ago I was madly infatuated with Yvonne. I don't deny it—and he knows all about it. G-d, I'd give ten years of my life if she were going along with us tomorrow. I'd give more than that to see this whole unhappy business patched up so that they could start off anew. But I'm afraid he wouldn't take it well from me if I asked him to include her in the party. It's his affair, not mine, you see. He'd be justified in considering me selfish in the matter. It might seem as though I didn't care a hang for his personal feelings and—"

"She's his wife, however," said Lydia, with a stubborn pursing of the lips. "She didn't wrong him and, after all, she's only guilty of—well, she isn't guilty of anything except being a sister of the girl he wronged."

"I'll have a talk with him if you think best," said he, an eager gleam in his eyes.

"And I with Yvonne," she said quickly. "You see, it's possible she is the one to be persuaded."

"He'll never ask her," said Frederic, after a long period of reflection.

"What is to become of her?" asked Lydia, rather bleakly.

"I suppose she'll go away. It will be the end."

"I don't think I could bear it, Freddy," she said, a trace of tears in her voice.

He swallowed hard. Then he cleared his throat briskly. "Of course you've observed that they never see one another alone. They never meet except when someone else is about. He rather resents the high-handed way in which she ordered him to stay away from me until I was safely out of danger. He has spoken of it to me, but, for the life of me I can't tell whether he holds it up against her or not. He says she saved my life. He says she performed a miracle. But he has never uttered a word of thanks or gratitude or appreciation to her. I'm sure of that, for she has told me so. And she is satisfied to go without his thanks. She rather likes him the better for the way he treats the situation. There's no hypocrisy about him. There's no use shamming, Lydia."

"I see what you mean," she said, with a sigh. "I suppose we just can't understand things."

"You've no idea how beautiful you are today, Lydia," he said suddenly, and she looked up into his glowing eyes with a smile of ineffable happiness.

"Ah, but you have it from her that he loved my mother even when she was in his arms, because, in a way, she represented the love that had never died. Now all that is a thing of the past. She is herself, she is not Matilde. He loved Matilde all the time."

"And I'm not so sure of that," said she, sagely. "It isn't the way with men. It may not have been love that he felt for the physical Yvonne, but it wasn't Matilde that he held in his arms. You can't get around that, nor can he. Matilde's soul and Yvonne's body are quite two different."

"G-d, you are analyzing things!" he exclaimed in amazement.

"But all this is neither here nor there," she said, flushing. "The point is this: we are going away tomorrow, for heaven knows how long—you and I, my mother and your father. We are going to Vienna and in St. Stephen's cathedral—where your father and mother were married with poor little Therese as one of the witnesses—in St. Stephen's we are to be married. She will not be there. She is not asked to come with us. She is barred out. Isn't it the refinement of cruelty?"

"Cruelty, Lydia? I'd hardly call it that. It's the order of destiny, or—"

GOOD NEWS

Many Janesville Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Janesville are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. L. W. Morse, 206 Park St., Janesville, says: "I had severe attacks of backache and pains across my loins. My kidneys didn't act regularly. Headaches made me miserable. It didn't take Doan's Kidney Pills long to make me feel stronger and better in every way. They regulated the action of my kidneys and put a stop to all the pains."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Morse had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. E. S. Sloan, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Dr. E. S. Sloan, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Black Is White

by GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Illustrations by RAY WALTERS

Copyright, 1914, by Dodd, Mead and Company

"Listen, Lydia, dear. I don't believe it's altogether up to him. There is a barrier that we can't see, but they do—both of them. My mother stands between them. You see, I've come to know my father lately, dear. He's not a stranger to me any longer. I know what sort of a heart he's got. He never got over loving my mother, and he'll never get over knowing that it was in Yvonne that attracted him from the first, and she knows. He's not likely to forgive himself so easily. He didn't play fair with either of them, that's what I'm trying to get at. I don't believe he can forgive himself any more than he can forgive Yvonne for the thing she set about to do. You see, Lydia, she married him without love. She debased herself, even though she can't admit it even now. I love her, too. She's the most wonderful woman in the world. She's got the finest instincts a woman ever possessed. But she did give herself to the man she hated with all her soul, and—well, there you are. He can't forget that, you know—and she can't. Leaving me out of the question altogether—and you, too—there still remains the sorry fact that she has betrayed her sister's love. She loves him for herself now, and—that's what hurts both of them. It hurts because they both know that he still loves my mother."

"I'm not so sure of that," pronounced Lydia. "He loves your mother's memory, he loves her for the wrong he did her, but—well, I don't see how he can help loving Yvonne, in spite of everything. She—"

"Ah, but you have it from her that he loved my mother even when she was in his arms, because, in a way, she represented the love that had never died. Now all that is a thing of the past. She is herself, she is not Matilde. He loved Matilde all the time."

"And I'm not so sure of that," said she, sagely. "It isn't the way with men. It may not have been love that he felt for the physical Yvonne, but it wasn't Matilde that he held in his arms. You can't get around that, nor can he. Matilde's soul and Yvonne's body are quite two different."

"G-d, you are analyzing things!" he exclaimed in amazement.

"But all this is neither here nor there," she said, flushing. "The point is this: we are going away tomorrow, for heaven knows how long—you and I, my mother and your father. We are going to Vienna and in St. Stephen's cathedral—where your father and mother were married with poor little Therese as one of the witnesses—in St. Stephen's we are to be married. She will not be there. She is not asked to come with us. She is barred out. Isn't it the refinement of cruelty?"

"Cruelty, Lydia? I'd hardly call it that. It's the order of destiny, or—"

GOOD NEWS

Many Janesville Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Janesville are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. L. W. Morse, 206 Park St., Janesville, says: "I had severe attacks of backache and pains across my loins. My kidneys didn't act regularly. Headaches made me miserable. It didn't take Doan's Kidney Pills long to make me feel stronger and better in every way. They regulated the action of my kidneys and put a stop to all the pains."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Morse had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. E. S. Sloan, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Dr. E. S. Sloan, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Dr. E. S. Sloan, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Dr. E. S. Sloan, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Dr. E. S. Sloan, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

something of the sort. She gambled with fate and lost out. She's a good loser. She hasn't squealed once."

"Squealed? I hate that word."

"I hate squealer worse," said he. "But seriously, it knocks me all out whenever I think of her. I've hesitated about speaking to father, dear. You see, I'm in rather a delicate position. Six weeks ago I was madly infatuated with Yvonne. I don't deny it—and he knows all about it. G-d, I'd give ten years of my life if she were going along with us tomorrow. I'd give more than that to see this whole unhappy business patched up so that they could start off anew. But I'm afraid he wouldn't take it well from me if I asked him to include her in the party. It's his affair, not mine, you see. He'd be justified in considering me selfish in the matter. It might seem as though I didn't care a hang for his personal feelings and—"

"She's his wife, however," said Lydia, with a stubborn pursing of the lips. "She didn't wrong him and, after all, she's only guilty of—well, she isn't guilty of anything except being a sister of the girl he wronged."

"I'll have a talk with him if you think best," said he, an eager gleam in his eyes.

"And I with Yvonne," she said quickly. "You see, it's possible she is the one to be persuaded."

"He'll never ask her," said Frederic, after a long period of reflection.

"What is to become of her?" asked Lydia, rather bleakly.

"I suppose she'll go away. It will be the end."

"I don't think I could bear it, Freddy," she said, a trace of tears in her voice.

He swallowed hard. Then he cleared his throat briskly. "Of course you've observed that they never see one another alone. They never meet except when someone else is about. He rather resents the high-handed way in which she ordered him to stay away from me until I was safely out of danger. He has spoken of it to me, but, for the life of me I can't tell whether he holds it up against her or not. He says she saved my life. He says she performed a miracle. But he has never uttered a word of thanks or gratitude or appreciation to her. I'm sure of that, for she has told me so. And she is satisfied to go without his thanks. She rather likes him the better for the way he treats the situation. There's no hypocrisy about him. There's no use shamming, Lydia."

"I see what you mean," she said, with a sigh. "I suppose we just can't understand things."

"You've no idea how beautiful you are today, Lydia," he said suddenly, and she looked up into his glowing eyes with a smile of ineffable happiness.

"Ah, but you have it from her that he loved my mother even when she was in his arms, because, in a way, she represented the love that had never died. Now all that is a thing of the past. She is herself, she is not Matilde. He loved Matilde all the time."

"And I'm not so sure of that," said she, sagely. "It isn't the way with men. It may not have been love that he felt for the physical Yvonne, but it wasn't Matilde that he held in his arms. You can't get around that, nor can he. Matilde's soul and Yvonne's body are quite two different."

"G-d, you are analyzing things!" he exclaimed in amazement.

"But all this is neither here nor there," she said, flushing. "The point is this: we are going away tomorrow, for heaven knows how long—you and I, my mother and your father. We are going to Vienna and in St. Stephen's

STEM PRICES HOLD IN TOBACCO SALES

Leaf That is Left Going at Stem Basis—Speculation on Acreage For This Year.

What little tobacco remains in the hands of the growers is steadily being absorbed by the dealer. Much of the latter part of the crop is being sold at stemming prices and quite a number of local buyers are storing large quantities to supply later demands from manufacturers. In binder grades there is but little market and prices in few instances reach ten cents. The past week witnessed quite an increase in deliveries towards the close and several warehouses will continue assorting operations for several weeks more although the majority are just about ready to turn over to the line. Some dealers have much stock accumulated in their warehouses.

Just what percentage of the Rock county farmers will grow tobacco during the coming season is hard to approximate at the present time. The fact that the bottom well out of the tobacco market early in the buying season last winter has not discouraged many growers. With the bulk of the crop being purchased at five cents it means the average grower is not receiving anywhere near the same results from his tobacco crop that he did from oats or grain crops. The loss due to the hoof and mouth disease seriously affected the stock business but the products of the soil still bring advances, everything but tobacco.

Small dealers are anxious to know what percentage of this year's growers are going to put in tobacco again and the farmers thus far are ranging from state to state. Many have capital tied up in sheds and feel they must plant tobacco or lose interest in investments but renters are not so fight shy of a crop that looked so good in the field.

Perhaps it is an inducement to grow crops this year but the late buyers have boosted the price somewhat and are picking up crops at seven and even a trifle higher, but there are only a few crops left even at this figure. One prominent dealer is responsible for the estimate that the 1914 crop is going to be a money loser for the dealers and that the farmers are lucky to have obtained the prices they did while some of the growers who pooled their crops and are sorting and handling it themselves claim they will make more money than ever. It just depends from an unbiased standpoint is right, how much tobacco is grown throughout southern Wisconsin this next season.

Orfordville News

Orfordville, April 13.—J. V. Chryst of Orfordville, has been in business in the village on Tuesday.

Miss Nancy Hurley, who has been spending some time at Delavan with friends, returned home on Monday evening.

There was a very interesting time at the meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary meeting on Tuesday. The address of Miss Kippa, returned missionary, was greatly enjoyed by all who had the pleasure of hearing it.

Orin Rime, who has been spending several months in Chicago, returned home on Tuesday. He is greatly improved in health, and reports that business on the plantation in which he is interested, is on the boom.

Several ladies from Brodhead spent the day in village on Tuesday in attendance upon the missionary meeting.

Rev. L. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Edw. M. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Edw. M. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Edw. M. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Edw. M. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Edw. M. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Edw. M. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Edw. M. C. Catchpole, of Janesville, was in Orfordville on Tuesday in the interests of the Children's Home finding society.

Theodore Olson of Brodhead, was in Orfordville on Tuesday looking after some business matters.

At the adjourned school meeting held on Monday evening, it was voted to accept the plan for a building as presented by the school board and advisory committee. The meeting also voted to adopt the report of the committee selected to determine the location of the new building. The committee recommended the retention of the present site and the purchase of additional land for its enlargement.

Mrs. G. A. Palmer entertained the F. W. club last Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. visited relatives near Evansville last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Misses Robina and Jessie Harper of Janesville, visited relatives here Saturday.

Brodhead News

Brodhead, April 13.—Ole Guelson, who has been here for the past few days, left Monday for his home in New London.

Messrs. P. R. Burns, W. S. Pauley, J. Bush and D. L. Amerphol were passengers to Waukesha Monday as delegates from the local lodge to the W. O. W. state convention.

Wm. Norton of Madison was the guest of Brodhead friends over Sunday.

Charles Skinner was a passenger to Milton Monday where he is attending court.

Attorney Sam Blum of Monroe, was a Brodhead business visitor on Monday.

Attorney B. Sprague went to Chicago Monday expecting to be absent some days.

Miss Pearl Atwood, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. T. T. Cortell, at Kansas City, Missouri, returned home Monday noon.

Word from Homer O'Carra at the hospital in Janesville, says he is getting along nicely.

Mrs. D. Gould and Mrs. W. S. Pauley went to Elmhurst, Illinois Monday where the former expects to make an extended visit.

Dr. Geo. L. Hunt of the Presbyterian church goes to Albany next Sunday where he speaks before the Men's club at that place.

C. E. Doolittle of Stoughton, is sending a day or two in Brodhead on business.

CLINTON

Clinton, April 13.—John T. Atkinson of Shoptown was in town Saturday.

Charles Elliott of Beloit was calling on old friends and neighbors here Saturday.

Mrs. Allen Barfield of Lake Geneva spent Saturday and Sunday here the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Nettie Scott.

L. D. Sampson of Milwaukee called on his old friend, A. J. Boden Saturday.

A small child of Christ Erickson had a very narrow escape from death Saturday. Mr. Erickson sat his two children on the seeder in front of the house and the child fell into the seeder.

The youngest child's dress became so revolving rod and pulled the child back against the seed box and choked it so it could make no out cry, due other to the fact that the child's sister's predicament and called to the father. The little one's dress had to be cut off before it could be extracted.

Dr. F. J. Thomas was called and made a fast run to the scene where the child was found. The child was revived and breathing was returning to normal.

H. A. Rowe spent Monday in Milwaukee on business.

C. Stewart has resigned his position at the Reeder's hardware store which he has so long and faithfully filled.

Mrs. Helen Seiven left Saturday to join her husband in the East after spending the winter here with her folks.

O. F. Winn spent Sunday and Monday morning in Chicago.

Waited on the morning train at Madison Saturday relative as to who was who on account of the illegal election last Tuesday his advice was to return home and have the newly elected officials sworn in just as the election was legal as there was but one ticket in the field; consequently all were sworn in yesterday (Monday) and it is sincerely hoped no trouble will ensue the plan of our village into expensive litigation.

Mark A. Stewart of Janesville was here yesterday visiting his mother.

JUDA

Juda, April 13.—Mrs. G. C. Benedict was called to Brookfield Friday on account of the death of her cousin.

Rev. T. H. Volk of Plymouth is here visiting among friends for a few days.

Miss Katherine Feldt spent over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Phipps of Monroe.

Mrs. Judd E. Davis spent the middle of last week with friends of Freeport.

Miss Danwidde, who has been spending the past three weeks with his parents, returned to his work at Chicago Sunday.

Mrs. William Kinyon was a Brodhead shopper Thursday.

Fred McDenbauer was a caller to Monroe Thursday.

Mrs. Otto Pinnow spent the latter part of last week at Freeport with her sister, Mrs. Paul Fatten.

C. B. Hall and family motored to Monroe Friday.

Miss Nellie Kryder was the guest of Miss Bertha Gempner of South Wayne from Friday until Monday.

John Burns of Monroe, was here on business Friday.

William Nerder is quite sick with pneumonia, but is slowly improving.

Mrs. Gerber left Monday morning for Alton, Ill., where she expects to stay with her daughter.

Mrs. Clark Lyman went to Brownstown Saturday to attend the funeral of her grandmother.

HARDWARE

Hardware, April 12.—John Gress left for La Porte, Ind., last Tuesday morning.

Isabella Hepburn spent Sunday afternoon with her sister in Edgerton.

Muriel Leam was an over-Sunday visitor at the parental home.

Tom Willeman and family of Edgerton, spent Sunday at the home of Frank Gress.

Mrs. Francis Gress and Sara Gress spent Thursday afternoon at John Gacheria's.

Rev. Father Scullion of Winona, Minn., and Mrs. Sara Donahue of Stoughton, were visitors at M. J. Dovan's Tuesday.

LIMA

Lima, April 13.—Mrs. Cummings was up from Whitewater Sunday and spent the day with her daughter, Charibel.

Jesse Howard and wife of Milton, were at Walter McComb's one day last week.

Lawrence Bowers of Milton Junction was an over Sunday guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Bowers, here.

Mrs. Alice Tilton was a week-end visitor at the home of Mrs. Fred Gould. She returned on Monday to Fort Atkinson and expects to go to Fort Gen. Ward and family in Sterling, Ill., for an indefinite stay.

Farmers are busy working on the land and the smarter housewives are cleaning house.

Mrs. Annie McLane was up from Whitewater Saturday to visit with Mrs. Tilton.

Mrs. O. A. Willard was a Milwaukee visitor Monday.

Most Old People Are Constipated

The wear of years impairs the action of the bowels. With advancing age people are disposed to restricted activity and exercise, which is responsible for the constipated condition of most old folks. The digestive organs are more sensitive to the demands made upon them and rebel more quickly.

A mild, effective remedy for constipation, and one that is especially suited to the needs of elderly people, women and children, is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

Milton News

Milton, April 13.—The annual oratorical contest of Milton college was staged last night at the college chapel. The orations rendered were much above the average quality. This was shown by the fact that the judges were somewhat troubled in regard to the choice of the best.

Among the boys was a contest. First W. West, while L. F. Hurley drew second. In the girls' division first place was won by Miss Stephanie Dapraise. Second place went to Miss Zea Zinn. The attendance was fair.

Sam Green came home from the hospital Monday and is recovering from his recent operation nicely.

Misses L. E. Walker and M. A. Borden attended a missionary board meeting in Milwaukee, today.

Fred Randall went to Rochester, Minn., last night to consult Mayo brothers as to his condition.

Barber Griffith has left the Randall barber shop.

PORTER

Porter, April 13.—C. W. McCarthy delivered tobacco to Edgerton on Monday.

Mrs. John Hart is visiting at the home of her brother, R. L. Earle.

Miss Anna Ford returned to Janesville on Sunday.

Messdames Clem Ludden, Charles Monthly and J. Hart were callers on Thursday afternoon at C. W. McCarthy's.

Messrs. R. L. Earle, and E. Julseth were Janesville visitors on Thursday.

Messdames John Copley, and John Hart were week end visitors at the home of Mrs. Charles White.

Miss Laura Hinkinson spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. Julseth.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd McCarthy motored from Stoughton on Thursday and visited relatives in this vicinity.

Messdames Clem Ludden, Ella Ludden and Miss Mary Ludden were Janesville visitors on Saturday.

Miss Nora McCarthy spent a few days last week at Madison.

Miss Anna Seep of Madison, was a week end visitor at the home of her brother, L. Seep.

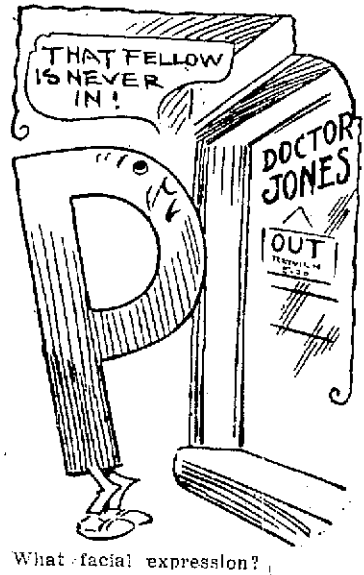

Mrs. Dicks of Richmond Center, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. Stearns.

Mr. T. Stearns, returned from Brodhead on Monday to the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles White.

M. Smith, who has been visiting at the home of E. Ford, departed for Milwaukee on Monday.

Mrs. J. Hart spent Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Margaret Ford.

Messrs. D. McCarthy and C. Ludden spent Sunday with friends at Center.

AT ONCE! STOPS
STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

"PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN" MAKES
SICK, SOUR, GASSY STOMACHS FEEL FINE.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach. Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, get this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes, your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder.

Reduction in Prices of Farm Labor Shown By Government

Washington, April 14.—Farm wages in the United States last year were less by 1.7 per cent than in the year before, although 9 per cent higher than five years ago.

For the whole country, the average wage without board in the past year was $29.58, as compared to $30.31 the year before, $27.43 five years ago and $19.97 fifteen years ago. Nevada averaged $56 last year, the highest among the states; South Carolina averaged $15.50, the lowest.

Where board was added to the money wage, the average for the United States last year was $21.05, compared with $21.38 the year before; $20.01 five years ago and $13.90 fifteen years ago. Nevada's $39 was the highest average, and South Carolina $12, the lowest.

The average day laborer without board, for day labor, other than harvest labor, was $1.45 a day, compared to $1.50 a year ago and $1.29 five years ago. Montana was highest with an average wage of $2.54. Day wages with board averaged $1.13, as compared to $1.16 a year ago and $1.03 five years ago.

Harvest time day labor, without board, averaged $1.91 compared to $1.94 a year ago, and $1.71 five years ago. North Dakota's average was $3.25, highest in the United States; Mississippi's, $1.06, the lowest. The same laborer with board, was paid $1.65, as against $1.67 a year ago and $1.43 five years ago. State averages ran from $3.82 in Mississippi to $2.68 in North Dakota.

The depression in the cotton market caused the South to experience the greatest reduction. A few states showed slight advance in some lines.

All post offices now have application blanks for use of farmers who wish to employ help through the government farm labor employment service.

The International Institute of Agriculture gives the following list of countries from which it is forbidden to export certain articles of food: Cereals generally are forbidden to be shipped out of Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Bulgaria, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Ireland, Italy, Netherlands, Roumania, Sweden, Switzerland, Egypt, Tunis, Union of South Africa, Australia (except to Great Britain, New Zealand, and to some extent, out of Russia and Canada).

Great Britain, Ireland and Switzerland prohibit the export of all foodstuffs.

Producers were paid higher prices for their farm products during the past winter than in any recent year. On March 1, crop prices averaged about 7.6 per cent higher than on that date a year ago, 27.1 per cent higher than that date two years ago and 12 per cent higher than the average for seven years on March 1.

The level of prices paid for wheat animals decreased 1.7 per cent during the month from January 13 to February 15, while there had been an average increase for that period in the past five years of 1.4 per cent.

The average price on February 15 of meat animals (hogs, cattle, sheep and chickens) was $8.46 a hundred pounds, as compared to $7.27 a year ago, $8.10 five years ago, $6.54 three years ago, $6.15 four years ago and $6.71 five years ago on that date.

Dinner Stories

It was a cold morning, but not a dry one. The railway car was even more than usually depressing. Old Tubbs got in, grunted a "Good morning" to the other occupants and buried himself in his paper. But Perkins hadn't got a paper, and he wanted to talk, so he jugged Tubbs in the side—a thing that annoyed Tubbs more than anything in the world.

"Is your wife entertaining this winter?" asked Perkins briskly.

Tubbs raised one eye.

"Not very," said he grimly.

Uncle Bobby Caldwell, a unique character who represented a western Tennessee county in the state legislature fifteen years ago, had a joint debate with an opponent who was contesting the nomination with him.

Uncle Bobby charged his opponent with responsibility for certain legislative acts which were not popular with the people of the county. He said: "Who passed the infamous dog law? Who is responsible for that outrageous fence law, that requires a man to buy a rope and keep his cow tied to the front porch? As Shakespeare said unto David, pointing to his opponent "Thou are the man!"

In a western town the attorney for the gas company was making a popular address.

"Think of the good the gas company has done!" he cried. "If I were permitted a pun, I would say, in the words of the immortal poet, 'Honor the Light Brigade!'"

Thereupon a shrill voice came from the rear: "Oh, what a charge they made!"

SHOPIERE

Shopiere, April 13.—The Royal Neighbors will serve a fifteen cent supper at Haggart's hall and an entertainment in the evening, April 23. Everyone welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Buss are moving to their new home at Tiffany.

Mrs. Van Kuren and son, Britten, are spending a week at Durand visiting relatives.

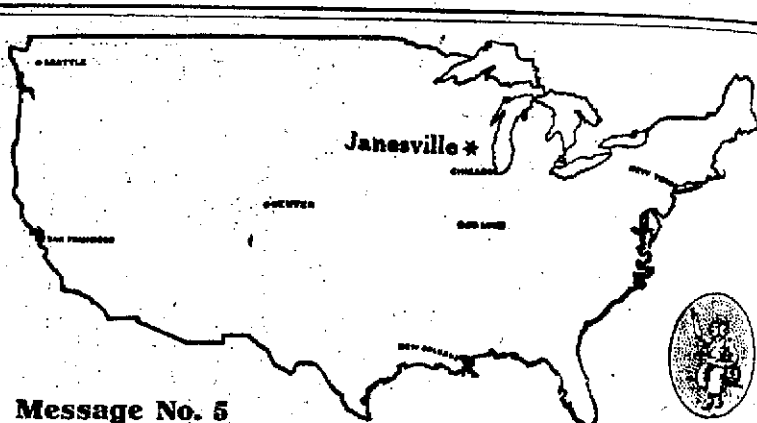

Miss Frances Conlin and Miss Gertrude Staas spent over Sunday at their homes in Beloit.

Walter Hogan has a new automobile and C. W. Shumail has ordered a new car. George Knipschield will also own a new car this season.

The last number of the lecture course will be given at the Congregational church Thursday evening, April 15.

The Royal Neighbors will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of George Knipschield.

Mrs. Butler spent last week at Beloit visiting relatives.

Message No. 5 To the Business Men of Janesville

The prosperity of a city is in direct proportion to the local pride. Where local pride runs high, prosperity has a firm foothold. Such a town is a good place to live and do business in.

Paint helps to a remarkable degree in spreading an impression of prosperity throughout a community. It gives a fresh, new, inviting look wherever it is used. Municipal buildings, stores and homes feel its good effects. Growing business is bound to be one of the direct results of a liberal use of paint, not from any magic in the paint, but because of the pride which is stimulated.

Shipman White Lead

(Dutch Boy Painter Trade Mark)

mixed with Dutch Boy linseed oil is the paint of quality and always has been. Lasting and economical. Sold by all good paint dealers. Get in touch with your dealer today.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY

S. HUTCHINSON & SON H. L. McNAMARA
J. P. BAKER & SON F. W. DOUGLAS
GEO. H. ROGERS

FOOTVILLE

Footville, April 13.—Miss Crystal Snyder spent Sunday with Miss Lizze Rowland in Madison.

Mrs. Frances Bailey went to Madison Saturday night, returning Monday afternoon.

Charles Curry and wife spent Saturday in Janesville.

Mrs. Fred Gunick is quite sick again.

H. H. Ham spent Sunday at the home of Al Veikman.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, who have been visiting at the home of Will Kennedy, have returned to Madison.

Mrs. Nettie Horton has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Pepper.

The Royal Neighbors are preparing a play to be given April 23rd.

Miss Daisy Spencer is on the sick list.

Mrs. B. T. Andrew is visiting relatives in Milwaukee.

WOMEN'S CLUBS AND THEIR ACTIVITIES

(EDITED BY MRS. ABBIE HELMS.)

THE IDEAL.

In the life of every well rounded individual there must be some ideal, something better than the life we are living, to make the life worth while. When our ancient cave mother swept and garnished her rude abode and set before her legs a savory steak of pleistocene cooked in a new and improved manner, she had an ideal, a hint of something better in conditions. And when her cave sisters, sniffing the appealing odor, gathered about the entrance and inquired how the trick was done. They, too, had an ideal, and there by the way was formed the first woman's club. It was a cooking class primitive but sincere as to its ideals. When some centuries later their dishes of shell and bark had been superseded by rice, potatoes, and decorated, them with figures in color from the juices of shrubs and berries. Their ideal had risen to the decorative stage and in modern society a well developed life the individual must have good, safe and sanitary housing and congenial surroundings in the city. It is the duty of the woman to cultivate the ear for music, to cultivate the eye to appreciate form and color, to stir the emotions with the thoughts of patriotism, to explore the wisdom of history, the delights of literature and rouse the imagination by the appeal of the drama; all these things help to cultivate the ideal. And with the ideal in the heart, the community. It must have its Civic League, to make its city safe, sanitary and pleasant; its W. C. T. U. to help put away the awful curse of liquor. Then it needs the musical club, to reach its citizens the beauty of sound and color. It cannot get along without its study classes, to help them learn lessons which the great and wise have tried to teach and to have its D. A. R. and its Woman's Relief Corps to keep alive the patriotism of the future while remembering the brave deeds of the past. And it needs the cooperation of its Dramatic League to study those scenes of life which are presented by the great dramatists. The community needs them, every one of them, working toward an ideal and that ideal a better city.

GET TOGETHER MEETING GREAT SUCCESS.

The Philomathian club on Saturday, April 10, arranged an open meeting at the home of Mrs. J. R. Whitten on South Third street, to which the presidents of all the women's clubs in the city were invited to be present. The ladies responded unanimously to the invitation, all the clubs except three being represented. An enthusiastic spirit of cooperation was evidenced by the interest shown. In the absence of the president of the Philomathian club, Mrs. Campbell, the vice president, Mrs. Lillian Eddy, presided.

The Civic League was represented by two of the commissioners, Mrs. J. S. Taylor and Miss Sara Richardson. After speaking of the purpose of the organization of the club and the efficient help and advice given to it by the Civic Council, Miss Richardson spoke of the ideals of the club as follows:

As for various object lessons those which we have accomplished may, it is true, be quickly enumerated, but in the pursuit of them as which we aim, we shall meet with as ready a sympathy and as generous encouragement and support as we have in the past. It is our duty to stand for that which we shall be justified in our loftiest ambitions for the future.

To explain the many aspirations of the various committees of the League would require more time than your patience would allow me, so I will merely mention a few that we hope to assist the city fathers in accomplishing. Perhaps the first would be the improvement of the appearance of the river banks, and several unsightly alleys and vacant lots. Then perhaps the relegation of that antiquated contrivance, the old dry street sweeper, to a state of innocuous desuetude and the substitution of the modern hand dust pan and flushing, for sanitary street cleaning according to the custom of 140 of the cleanest towns in the country. It has been said of the old dry cleaners, mechanical or hand machines, that they are more efficacious than even a high wind in scattering the dust, filth and germs from the pavement into the surrounding buildings and atmosphere.

We dream of a day, far distant of course, when the powers that be shall come to us seeking our vote and assistance, (and how well we are prepared to give it) on such subjects as city waste disposal, the smoke nuisance, housing conditions, the extended use of school houses and many other branches of public service. We have found that we have far less to contend with and fewer problems to attack than the great majority of such associations of women in other towns, and in the year 1906 there were no less than 2,000 such organizations as ours in the United States alone. And the number has increased enormously since then. The public spirit has already launched, tested and found worthy of continuance many improvements in the conditions that surround and influence our daily life. And the various clubs in many towns much larger and wealthier than Jansville. Such advantages as the manual training school and industrial schools, evening classes, the dignified and artistic lighting system installed on the new bridge, school playground apparatus and equipment and a playmate to direct the activities of the club is to stimulate in the children the desire to go to work by the children in the form of prizes and awards of merit in the schools, and encouragement of home and school gardening, and the improvement in the appearance of the public park.

Mr. Gladstone once spoke of Americans as conspicuous for combining enthusiasm for their country with love for their home cities, and doubtless it is this feeling that forms the spur of our civic pride—the feeling that we are among "the citizens of no mean city," a sentiment that finds its home in the heart of many a self-exiled son and daughter of Jansville, several of whom I might mention because of their often expressed love and admiration for their home town, which has been their adopted city as "good old Jansville."

It only remains for me to mention our present main ambition, the aspiration toward which we hope to direct the united and united efforts of all our communities and beside which whatever work each may have in hand at the time should, we feel, be regarded as of only secondary importance. In the past we have had an association of women only (although we believe that no good influence for the girls can fail to benefit the boys as well). An organization of and for girls and women, which they shall be mutually helpful and both individually and collectively benefited. Designed to meet the needs of girls both resident and transients in the city and affording a home and protection for all who are found worthy and desirous of entering and enjoying its shelter. To the consideration of this object we invite your attention and request your interest, and we earnestly hope that an investigation of the subject will result in your desire to join our league and assist in forwarding this object which means hard work ahead for all of us, and you may possibly feel, as we have often done, like the poor woman who came under the wing of the old dame who lived at the Hull House restaurant, who was advised to eat some good nourishing food instead of cream puffs and pickles that appealed to her perversely, and replied, "I don't want to do what I'd ought to, I want to do what I'd rather." We need your help of every kind. Some of you have had far more experience with girls and club life and good work of all kinds, than some of us have had; we need your suggestions and advice, your moral support and financial assistance, and some of your time and strength, if we are to make a success of such an undertaking as we propose to attack. So we hope you will join us and let all the clubs work together for this object which we cannot but feel is the most urgent need of the women of Jansville today. We have not yet started this new line of endeavor, and as we are to have another informal discussion as to the relative merits of business girls' clubs and Y. M. C. A.'s, either of which to include a comfortable women's rest room. We hope to see you all there as active members and to hear each one lift up her voice in the resistance of her observations and experiences with such societies.

D. A. R.

Mrs. Francis Grant in an informal talk gave an interesting account of the way that the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution had grown, since it was first started to inculcate the lessons of patriotism. She dwelt particularly on the well done work for women and children of the feeling of sisterhood toward the unfortunate and of helpfulness in relieving suffering wherever found. She advocated especially the advantages accruing from the establishment of a country hospital for the treatment of tuberculosis, that this dread disease might be taken in time and prevented the spread of its germs, by segregating the patient be able to prevent the spread of its germs. Mrs. J. B. Day preceded her talk with the Dramatic club by saying that the president of the club was the wrong person, so she had been drafted in as a substitute. She gave the following informal resume of the work:

The Jansville Dramatic club was organized in October, 1913, and it is the only mixed study club in the city.

Article 2 of its by-laws says the purpose of the club is to stimulate in the members the desire to grow in dramatic literature, to grow familiar with the plays of the past and present and to read and discuss plays and present them when possible. We began our study by tracing the history of the American theatre for the past one hundred years. We found intensely interesting material in the lives and works of such actors as Jas. E. Murdoch, Cushman, Lawrence, Edwin Forrest, Edwin Booth, the Jefferson family, John McCulloch, George Barrett, Thos. Keene, Richard Mansfield, Forbes Robertson, Sol Smith Russell.

Biographical sketches of the actors mentioned were written and presented by club members and are left on file for reference. The old-time theatre and the way of presenting plays in the past as contrasted with modern-day drama, kept up our interest in the bygone players, while we interspersed our program with readings of the semi-classics and modern drama. In the two years we have read and discussed the following plays:

"The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," by Arthur Wing Pinero; "The Rivals," semi-classic by Sheridan; "Truth," by Clyde Fitch; "The House of the Dead," by Lady Gregory; "The House Next Door," by Manners; "Disraeli," by Louis N. Parker; "Sow-a-Days," by Geo. Middleton; "The Walls of Jericho," by Alfred Sutro. Interesting papers were also presented by club members concerning the authors of these plays. The following plays were discussed and summarized: "Within the Law," "The Yellow Jacket," "The Return of Peter Grimm," "Kismet," "Joseph and His Brethren," "The Sanctuary," "On Trial," "Under Cover," "The Irish Plays of Yeats," "Synge," "Lady Gregory," and last but not least, "Omar Karam," by Guy de Maupassant. The club also staged and presented public or semi-publicly seven plays. This is not a bad record for two years in a club made up of busy workers. We scarcely have a member who is not employed during the day in an active business but we have found time for fun as well as work in the two years.

We have had two banquets, one commemorating Shakespeare's birthday, the other at the beginning of the year's work. We tried our hand at costume and stage settings by having an immigrant social and a county fair.

We had an evening of charades and games and we rehearsed our play of last season at five o'clock in the morning for several weeks. (If that is not fun, what is?) You see we were eager to experience the real trials and inconveniences of actor folk. We were not always in the best of humor at this unearthly hour, but we were a happy family and breakfast in hand or in anticipation, we went out way to the opera house in the gray dawn and pretended that we liked it. Our efforts were rewarded by a successful play on the hottest June night on record.

We have increased our membership from twelve to seventy-five, the limit number, and hope to be a credit to our home town. We are not the least bit of a littlet club, or of a handsomest club, but we are interested in civic as well as self improvement and we believe that knowledge of the stage of plays and playing is valuable for a knowledge of life.

We realize that the play writers and producers have a close and sure touch on the pulse of the people and are entitled to the respect and admiration of the theatre is but the crystallized thought of the people.

The club is now busy with try-outs for parts in the play which they hope to produce in the month. They will close the year's work with a banquet commemorating the birthday of Shakespeare as usual.

Mrs. Vic Campbell of Evansville, president of the Summer club, had for her subject, "What the Summer Club Would Like To Do." She said in part that what the Summer club would like to do for the betterment of Jansville, was to have a permanent club house in Rock county and for all the members of the club to have a permanent club house. She expressed herself as amazed at the power which was lying in the hands of the club women of the city, and that they would realize their opportunities and learn that by co-operation great things could be accomplished. Mrs. Campbell also gave as president of the Art League with a president of the work the club was doing along art lines and the permanent collection of the club being made by Mrs. Campbell. She then continued as follows:

The subject for discussion today is "The Betterment of Jansville." I understand this, it is from the standpoint of the club and the club woman, that we are asked to express our opinion of the doctrine which has been expounded—work together—in other words of federating, that I fear you for all club women I consider it a panacea for all ills. I wish to say that I do not find that, whatever object we wish to accomplish, it requires the co-operation of others? Is that not the foundation idea of the individual club? Therefore, when we devote to the production of greater things—things for the good of our community, no matter how earnestly any one club may desire to accomplish its own object, it is not sufficient to accomplish the co-operation of many working for the same aim must therefore be achieved. I think that the club woman, whatever she may wish or desire, as long as each individual club pursues its individual way, what can we hope to accomplish? We also might wish to see the individual clubs do not do good, they do. Each one accomplishes some good but we are not prone to be satisfied with that little, without thinking how much more might be done by all working together for a common end. I may say: "But this club wishes to do one thing," and that one something else, but could they not all be carried out in turn more efficiently, more successfully, by the combined effort of all working together? I would not for one moment wish any club to give up its individuality or its own purpose, but unless that purpose grows with the years it loses that for which the club was organized. Mrs. Penny Baker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in an address at Racine, said, "While we shall ever cherish the cultural side of our club life, we are convinced that all study and culture must lead to action for the good of others." Therefore, unless our self-culture so educates us that we shall in some way be of benefit and assistance to others, we are losing the best of our club life. For that reason I have advocated federation, that we may make that assistance more efficient by combined effort, and that with federation comes not only a broader outlook, of purpose, of association, work, which means growth, the things supremely to be desired in the individual or the club, but that which cannot be put into cold words, a broader charity, a more tolerant spirit, and a sweetness and strength of sympathy and co-operation among strong women, widely separated, but standing together in a concerted movement for common good. I hope you all read the article on "The Ideal Club Woman," printed in the Gazette Wednesday last. It was devoted to women's clubs, an article that each woman should not only read, but heed, especially "That the good a club accomplishes depends upon its members." It is a challenge to judge the success of a club by the efficiency of its officers, forgetting that those officers are recruited from the ranks of the members, and if they are not or do not aspire to be ideal club women, what can we expect from the club? I would that the club women of our city should all become ideal club women, and that they should be united in a common purpose, definitely uniting to accomplish some definite aim—as, say a club house or woman's building, where all the clubs could meet in their own home; could entertain for the social factor must not be forgotten if we would have a successful club, could hold entertainments, could gather the young women of our city here in a girls' club, could there do any and all things desired by the clubs in a home brought into existence by the club women of our city for the betterment of Jansville and the girls therein. Therefore to that end, "Let us join hands and help, for today we are alive together."

After these addresses, had been given, the presiding officer announced that there was plenty of time to hear from the remaining clubs represented. Informal talks were given by Mrs. Mary Mout, representing the Woman's History club, Mrs. Fred Sutherland, the Twentieth century, Mrs. J. L. Hay, the Jansville club, Mrs. Agnes Robery, the Daughters of Isabella, Mrs. Jennie Lester, the Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Will Tallman, the Star Study Class, and Miss Ida Harris, the Congregational church. A general discussion followed, after which delicious refreshments were served. Both hostesses and guests were enthusiastic over the outlook presented by those attending the gathering, the cordial good fellowship seeming to be enjoyed by all; and the sentiment was often expressed that the occasion was one of the best of a series of pleasant and profitable "get together" meetings.

After these addresses, had been given, the presiding officer announced that there was plenty of time to hear from the remaining clubs represented. Informal talks were given by Mrs. Mary Mout, representing the Woman's History club, Mrs. Fred Sutherland, the Twentieth century, Mrs. J. L. Hay, the Jansville club, Mrs. Agnes Robery, the Daughters of Isabella, Mrs. Jennie Lester, the Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Will Tallman, the Star Study Class, and Miss Ida Harris, the Congregational church. A general discussion followed, after which delicious refreshments were served. Both hostesses and guests were enthusiastic over the outlook presented by those attending the gathering, the cordial good fellowship seeming to be enjoyed by all; and the sentiment was often expressed that the occasion was one of the best of a series of pleasant and profitable "get together" meetings.

Club Happenings

First District Federation meeting at Beloit, April 27 and 28. The convention opens at 2:00 p. m. on Tuesday at the Methodist church. Luncheon will be served Tuesday and Wednesday noon and dinner Tuesday and Wednesday for the convenience of visiting club women. Mrs. D. O. Kinsman and Dr. Rachelle S. Arros of Hull House are the afternoon speakers. The evening lecture will be "The Results of the War to the American Woman," by Dr. Arnold B. Hall of the University of Wisconsin. These delightful entertainment will be given by Bailey, Beloit, and those expecting to attend the luncheon Tuesday write Mrs. A. M. Figenbaum, Beloit.

ART LEAGUE.

The Art League met on Friday, April 9, at Library hall, the president, Mrs. Woods, presiding. Delegates were elected for the district federation at Beloit, they being as follows: Delegates, Mesdames Nuzum, Penber and the Misses Cobb, Goodwin and Shoop; alternates, Mesdames Reynolds, Strimble, Mills, Taylor and Miss Alden. An invitation was given by Mrs. J. F. Penber asking the league to be guests for the meeting and social on May 21st.

A program committee consisting of Mrs. Penber and Mrs. George Field was appointed by the president to prepare the program for another year. Notice of the state federation meeting at La Crosse Oct. 5, 6, 7 was read. When the program was taken by Mrs. Nuzum gave a paper, "The Art of the last meeting on 'Byzantine and Moorish Architecture.' She gave some examples of the style of architecture among the churches of New York City. She also gave the names of the church of St. Sophia at Constantinople and of St. Marks, Venice. Her talk was interspersed with many little anecdotes of her experiences abroad and was very interesting in consequence. Miss Pritchard was unable to be present and in her absence the paper prepared by her on San Michele's was read by Mrs. Penber. Mrs. Reynolds read a paper on the cathedral at Pisa, and Mrs. Mae Rogan had for her subject the cathedral at Lucca. The program closed with current events given by the various members.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

The W. C. T. U. mothers' meeting, postponed from Wednesday, was held Thursday, April 8th, at the home of Mrs. H. A. Palmer, on Logan street. Though the attendance was not as large as might be wished, the meeting was very interesting and much enjoyed. After the devotional service and business session, roll call was responded to with texts on giving. The program, which was given in general, was in charge of the president, Mrs. Palmer. As an introduction she read a poem, "Are All the Children Here?" which was followed by a short talk, by Miss Welch on giving of charity is systematic and well conducted in Jansville or not. This opened the way for discussion, April being the month in which Mrs. Lillian

M. N. Stevens, National W. C. T. U. president, died, one year ago, part of the program was in memory of her. Mrs. Stevens' last words to the public were read by Mrs. Held. Their text was "World-Wide Prohibition is Coming." Report of memorial services in Portland, Me., was read by Miss Welch. Mrs. Porter read a tribute to Mrs. Stevens by Col. and Mrs. Maus of the U. S. army. Mrs. Palmer read a brief memorial to Mrs. E. E. Pratt of Evansville, and Mrs. C. E. Ayer of Beloit, members of Rock county who have gone to the world beyond since autumn. "Go Forward" was the title of an article read by Mrs. Louden. Piano solos were given by Mrs. Penber and Miss C. Palmer. After the meeting the hostess served nice refreshments and an enjoyable social hour was spent. Caroline M. Palmer, Press Supt.

WIFE'S EARNINGS GO TO HUSBAND.

New York Justice Makes Decision and Says "Nothing Extraordinary About It."

A decision was given last week by Justice Morschauer of the New York supreme court that, unless otherwise agreed, the earnings of a wife belong to her husband. Justice said she serves the earnings as her own, they go automatically to the man she has married. "There is nothing extraordinary about it," the justice is quoted as saying. "The law I followed has been stated many times. The services of the wife belong to the husband during marriage while they live together, and so do her earnings. There can be no legal doubt about that."

"The New Freedom." The Michigan commission on industrial relations was discovered, says the Detroit Journal, "that thousands of wives support their husbands."

Woman's place is the home, but under a special privilege she is sometimes allowed to send her wages as a substitute.

RECIPROCITY BUREAU. The First District Federation maintains a Reciprocity Bureau which contains over a hundred papers and articles on various subjects contributed by various club women all over the district. It has been the custom to send in some of the best papers presented before the various clubs. These papers are free to all and are loaned wherever desired, and many times the author of them will appear to a club and read her paper to them, if invited to do so.

The chairman of the bureau is Mrs. H. D. Murdock of this city and she will answer inquiries in regard to it and help club women to find what ever material is available. The advantages of this bureau are not as widely known as it ought to be as there are many valuable papers at hand already and others coming in later.

Invitations have been sent to all women's clubs in the city by the Eastern Star Study Class to attend a talk on "Parental Care of School Children," by Dr. Pickard of Chicago. This is a subject of great importance to mothers especially, and we hope to have a large attendance. The meeting will open with a short musical program in the Sunday school room of the Baptist church Thursday, 2:30 o'clock p. m., April 15.

D. A. R. D. A. R. will hold their regular meeting Tuesday, April 13th, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. J. L. Wilcox, 613 South Second street.

The following notices were given as "Topics of Current Events" in a woman's club recently. They are entitled to thoughtful consideration:

The City Federation of Edgerton hold their annual meeting on Wednesday, the 14th of April. The speakers during the afternoon are Mrs. E. F. Woods of Jansville and Mrs. Rote of Monroe.

Enjoys His Grouch. "When a man has a grouch no day two days in succession," said Uncle Eben, "let 'im alone. It's his way of enjoyin' hisself."

MAMMA, DADDY AND THE CHILDREN CAN ALL TAKE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

HARMLESS "FRUIT LAXATIVE" CLEANSSES STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

A delicious cure for constipation, biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, indigestion, coated tongue, sallowness—take "California Syrup of Figs." For the cause of all this distress lies in a torpid liver and sluggish bowels.

A table-spoonful tonight means all constipation, poison, waste matter, fermenting food and sour bile gently moved out of your system by morning without griping. Please don't think of "California Syrup of Figs" as a physic. Don't think you are dragging yourself or your children, because this delicious fruit laxative can't cause injury. Even a delicate child can take it as safely as a robust man. It is the most harmless, effective stomach, liver and bowel regulator on the market ever devised.

Your only difficulty may be in getting the genuine; so ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Say to your druggist, "I want only that made by the 'California Fig Syrup Company.' This city has many counterfeit 'fig syrups,' so watch out.

HUSBANDS I'VE KNOWN

BY SARA MOORE

THE HONEY MOONER

His Bride: "Oh, are you busy? Then just say, 'I love you' and I'll ring off."

Rexall

"93" Hair Tonic

stops the hair from falling out.

Smith's Pharmacy.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE LEVY'S

The Values Below Demonstrate That Your Dollar Does Its Duty at This Store

It is our constant aim to offer our patrons the best values possible. The success of this store depends upon it. For that reason we offer only dependable, worthy merchandise—the kind which satisfies—at close-margin-of-profit prices and at one price to all. We want you to prove to yourself that you can and do save money on your purchases here. This ad contains four values which are unusual.

Extra Special Offering of Children's Wash Dresses For Tomorrow 98c

A special offering of 50 Children's Wash Dresses. Made in the latest pleated tunic styles with yoke effect, collars, cuffs and belt of white pique, materials the newest plaid ginghams, sizes 6 to 14. Extra special for tomorrow, at each ..... 98c

Plisse Crepe Specially Priced

For tomorrow only we offer 1,000 yards of Plisse Crepe in the new floral designs and stripe effects, a most unusual bargain offering, tomorrow only at, per yard ..... 12½c

Boudoir Caps 2 for 25c

Here's an opportunity that women will hurry to take advantage of: Boudoir Caps made of good quality crepe, three colors, pink, blue or lavender, trimmed with tiny Val. lace. Tomorrow you can have 2 for ..... 25c

Bungalow Aprons Tomorrow at 39c

These aprons are made extra full and are piped in contrasting colors, made of good quality percales and priced for tomorrow's selling at each 39c

Tells How Father Builds Up Enormous Music Business

In 1852 Rudolph Wurlitzer Clerked in a Cincinnati Notion Store for $4 Per Week, and Saved $1.

Business Now Includes 22 Factories and Stores.

Howard Wurlitzer Says Newspaper Advertising Has Built Up In Chicago Alone a Business of $1,250,000 a Year in Less Than 10 Years.

By Andrew Demling.
"Remember the story your father used to tell about the first musical instrument he ever sold in America, and how his modesty in the matter of price made his customer accuse him of having stolen it?"

Three of us were sitting in Howard Wurlitzer's offices in "Cincinnati's" most beautiful industrial building, the Wurlitzer building. The other two were Mr. Wurlitzer and Mr. E. H. Uhl, manager of the Chicago "House of Wurlitzer."

The windows were thrown wide, and it called for small effort of the imagination to believe that could we step over the hills that surround the city's business district, we should see green dooryards and hazy ramblers. For a spring day, and blued into the winter month, like a young lady amateur who had mistaken her cue, but, finding herself before the footlights intended to make the most of her opportunity.

Salary $4. Saves $1.
Mr. Uhl continued:
"As perhaps you know, the Wurlitzers were skilled flute makers generations before Hans Adam Wurlitzer gained fame as a violin maker in Saxony, in 1732. So it was only natural that when young Rudolph Wurlitzer finished his education at Leipzig, and came to America, in the early fifties, he brought visions of inscribing his name boldly in the musical history of the new world."

"Like everyone else, he found success a retiring person. So when fate turned spendthrift and offered him a job in one of those old fashioned 'Notion Stores' at a salary of $4 per week, he lost no time in accepting it. And he used to tell about how he saved one of those four dollars every week, and the only dissipation he allowed himself was a five cent cigar on Sunday and a walk."

Modest Excites Suspicion.
"But he was anxious to get into the musical instrument field. So he secured a few flutes from abroad, as a beginning quite in proportion with his income, and started down Vine street one day, to sell them."

"He approached the first likely looking man he saw.
"How much?" The man's first question.

"Young Wurlitzer named his price, which, while modest, included what he considered a neat profit. Instead of snapping up the offer, the man came back with a young man, where did you get those flutes?"

"The young merchant's price seemed too good to be true, and it was only after he had been shown the flutes that the customer could be convinced he hadn't stolen them."

"But that incident was the shadow of a big coming event, for this same Rudolph Wurlitzer eventually revolutionized the prices in this country of foreign made musical instruments."

An Advertising Built Business.
The story of the humble beginning of this mammoth business presented a contrast that called to mind innumerable instances of men who have started more pretentiously only to meet failure or indifferent success after tedious years."

Mr. Wurlitzer answered by unvoiced question.
"Father started with the right policy: dependability, legitimate profit, one price, and no commissions. It has always been the boast of this establishment that an eight year old can buy here as safely as a grown up."

"And we have established this policy as a fact in every one of the twenty-two cities that have Wurlitzer establishments."

"How?" I inquired.
"Through the newspapers," he replied. "Every Wurlitzer house offers an individual story of the achievement of proper newspaper advertising. We've proved its efficiency from A to Z, and wherever you ask a Wurlitzer house you'll find an advertising enthusiast and a practitioner of what he preaches."

For instance, here in Cincinnati, we use generous newspaper space three times every week in the year and daily in certain seasons, and we've had a half page ad in certain paper every Sunday morning for over four years. The newspapers have made "Wurlitzer" synonymous with quality and absolute dependability in this field."

How Advertising Sells Musical Goods.
"But if you want a clear cut example of what newspaper advertising actually accomplishes in this business, just have Mr. Uhl give you the figures of the Chicago house. I suggest this because it is an exclusively retail house, and because it is one of our most recently established branches."

"We went into Chicago less than ten years ago," began Mr. Uhl. "We were unknown, and the first year or so we handled no pianos. The year we opened the piano department, we invested $25,000 in what the newspapers advertising and the appropriation has growing until it has now reached $50,000."

"Very well, that's the investment. Here are the returns: today we are doing an annual retail business of $1,250,000, less than ten years ago, going into the town unknown! If that isn't a clean cut and convincing demonstration of what newspaper advertising actually accomplishes, then I'm no judge of what is convincing. Newspapers Working for 22 Stores."

"You understand," Mr. Wurlitzer interposed, "that it is only an individual example of what the newspapers achieve. We have 22 establishments, and the newspapers are just as important a feature of the sales force in every one of them, and are accomplishing proportionately as gratifying results. And of course, as these branches and our success are largely due primarily to the successful co-operation of the newspapers with father in building up the success of this parent institution."

Copyright 1915—Andrew L. Demling.

Edgerton News

Edgerton, April 14.—The Eastern Star lodge of this city met in the Masonic hall last evening and after the business was transacted during the evening program light refreshments were served.

The Edgerton athletic association met in the High School gymnasium last evening. The association played the Edgerton boys' basketball team and won an easy victory. This team is under the management of Frank Barrett of this city and are contenders for the state title as they have not been defeated this year. Arrangements are being made to play the Janesville Lakota Cardinals but it seems that the Cardinals do not want to contest with the strong Edgerton team.

The dramatic society met in the High School auditorium last evening and rehearsed the first two acts of their play. The society is being trained by A. T. Shearer of this city. The Five Hundred club met at the home of J. T. Parmann, Rollin Street yesterday afternoon and Mrs. C. O. Shannon carried off the high honors.

Wm. Heddles of Madison was calling on friends in this city yesterday. Mrs. J. M. Conway spent yesterday afternoon with friends in Janesville. Will McIntosh Jr. and his mother motored to Janesville Tuesday to spend the day visiting friends.

W. P. Gutery is transacting business in Milwaukee for a few days this week. E. Earle took a party of friends in his automobile to Fort Atkinson to witness the baseball game between two picked teams from the Minneapolis A. A. One of which will be captained by William Sullivan, a former resident of this city.

G. M. Underhill spent yesterday on business in Stoughton. Mrs. Elizabeth Small of Black Earth is spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hatch in this city.

Mrs. McIntire of Oak Park, Ill., who has been spending a few days visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coon in this city, returned to her home last evening.

Miss E. Mann spent yesterday on friends and relatives in Madison.

CANADIANS THREATEN SHIPPING INTERESTS ON THE GREAT LAKES.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Cleveland, April 14.—Opportunity for an American monopoly of shipping between ports in the United States and South America is threatened by Canadians, who now operate more than half of the ships plying on the Great Lakes.

Canadian vessel owners, anticipating a long period of business depression in the Dominion as result of the war, declare they will send fifty ships through the Welland canal, equip them for ocean traffic, and go after the South American trade. At the present time there are on the lakes over 100 Canadian vessels, each of 200 tons capacity, which is small enough to pass through the Welland canal and large enough for ocean traffic. Of the Great Lakes vessels owned in the United States there are about twenty-five of the same size. Many of these Canadian boats will be sent through the canal, down the St. Lawrence and to the coast. Read the want ads. carefully. The bargain you are looking for may be there.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

THREE "Onyx" DAYS

The National Annual Hosiery Event

APRIL

15th 16th 17th
Thursday Friday Saturday

"Onyx" Hosiery

At Special Prices on these Days Only

409 K K Women's "Onyx" Medium Weight Silk Lisle "double" top, high spliced heel and double sole, in black only "Onyx" Day Price, 3 pair for $1.00

6607 Women's "Onyx" Pure Thread Silk Boot with lisle "double" top; reinforced heel, sole and toe, in black only; "Onyx" Day Price, 3 pair for $1.00

Women's "Onyx" Pure Thread Silk; a fine medium weight; "double" garter top of silk or lisle; high spliced heel and double sole of silk or lisle, comes in black only; "Onyx" Day Price, pair $1.00

Sale is for three days only, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 15th, 16th and 17th.

SPECIAL SALE OF DRESS GOODS

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

One Big Lot of the popular shepherd checks, 31 to 42 inches wide, also some novelty checks in beautiful novelty combinations, 54 inches wide; EXTRA SPECIAL AT YARD... 48c

One Lot of All Wool Chiffon Panama in a good assortment of colors, 50 inches wide, also some very pretty plaids, 42 inches wide, special yard... 59c

The Greatest Value In "Sixes" On The Market

THE GRANT "SIX" $795

The following specifications will give you an idea of the extra value you get when you buy a Grant "SIX".
If you are interested in this car we will be glad to arrange for a demonstration at any time that suits your convenience. Just phone us and make an appointment.

Specifications

UNIT POWER PLANT—Three-point suspension.

MOTOR—Our own—six cylinders—2 1/2 inch bore x 4 1/2 inch stroke—cast iron block—water cooled—overhead valves—valves concealed—spherical combustion chambers, insuring the greatest possible efficiency to be obtained in an internal combustion engine. Horsepower, 33-36.

TRANSMISSION—Selective sliding gear—three speeds forward and reverse—mounted on aluminum ball bearings.

FRONT AXLE—I-beam, drop forged, heat treated—steering knuckle pins hardened and ground.

REAR AXLE—Full floating—differential and pinions on one carrier—fully adjustable—ball and roller bearing mounting—rear inspection plate.

STEERING GEAR—Irreversible—worm and sector type.

CONTROL—Left-hand drive—center control—throttle lever under steering wheel—foot accelerator.

CLUTCH—Cone, fully adjustable.

IGNITION—Atwater-Kent—automatic spark advance.

BRAKES—Internal and external on rear wheels; extra large braking surfaces.

LUBRICATION—Constant level—circulating pump, sight feed on cowl board.

GASOLINE SYSTEM—Gravity—tank mounted on dash under cowl—filter cap in cowl board.

SPRINGS—Semi-elliptic front—true cantilever rear—special alloy steel.

WHEEL BASE—106 inches.

TREAD—56 inches—60 inch special for South-ern trade.

BODY—Beautiful streamline—deep, wide, tilted cushions—real upholstery, long springs and curled hair.

FENDERS—Heavy stamped crown fenders, joined to aluminum covered running boards.

WHEELS—Wood—32 inches—quick detachable, demountable rims.

TIRES—32 x 3 1/2 inches all around—straight side type.

WINDSHIELD—Two-piece—rain vision—adjustable to any position.

ROAD CLEARANCE—11 inches.

LIGHTS—Electric, two-bulb headlights—electric tail light.

STARTING AND LIGHTING—One unit Allis Chalmers generator and starting motor—mounted on engine—extra large battery.

COWL BOARD MOUNTINGS—Oil pressure gauge speedometer, ignition switch, gasoline filler.

COLOR—Body and chassis, black—equipment in black enamel and nickel.

EQUIPMENT—One-man top, mohair, with mohair top slip—jiffy curtains—ventilating, rain vision windshield—Stewart speedometer—electric horn—instrument lamp on cowl board—robe rail—foot rail—floor mats—Firestone demountable rims, with extra rim and rim carrier on rear—tools—jack—tire pump—license bracket.

PRICE—With electric lighting and starting, and all accessories, as specified, $795, f. o. b. Findley, Ohio.

JUNCTION GARAGE COMPANY

Milton Junction, Wis.

SATURDAY--SUNDAY APRIL 17th and 18th

Matinee and Night

At the

MYERS THEATRE

The Gazette Brings To Janesville

The Chicago Herald and New York Sun
MOTION PICTURES OF THE

Great War

Photography's Greatest Achievement!

History in the Making Flashed Before Your Eyes.

65 Distinct Series of Action Pictures of the European Conflict.

WAR'S GREATEST MOTION PICTURES

- |     |  |     |  |
|-----|--|-----|--|
| SEE | thrilling scenes pictured where intrepid operators momentarily braved death to bring you the war news in pictures.           | SEE | Belgians, Germans, French, Russians, Austrians, East Indians and Africans—humanity from three-quarters of the globe in war's convulsion. |
| SEE | the blowing up of bridges, batteries, wheeling into action and the steady pounding of long-range guns.                       | SEE | the shells of German siege guns as they burst in air or find their mark.   |
| SEE | droves of refugees burdened with their small belongings trudging painfully along the highway from their ruined homes.        | SEE | the Kaiser's seasoned troops enter Brussels, lean and lank as greyhounds after the long campaigns before Liege and Namur.                |
| SEE | the ruins of Louvain and the wreck of proud St. Peter's—corrice, capital and arabesque laid low.                             | SEE | the actual surrender of the gallant Belgian defenders to the conquering Germans.   |
| SEE | Albert of Belgium and his Queen, Elizabeth—he leading men to battle, she succoring the wounded.                              | SEE | wounded men attended by priests and Red Cross nurses on the field of battle and in improvised hospitals.                                 |
| SEE | the landing of the British expeditionary forces as they hasten from small boats of the transports and march off into France. | SEE | pictures taken on the British warship shelling Slype, then the scene ashore with buildings struck and bursting into flames.              |
| SEE | British naval guns on armored trains in action, armored motor cars and motor busses pressed into war's service.              | SEE | the gallant Belgian Lancers—160 ride out of a cloud of dust into a cloud of smoke and only thirty-eight return.                          |
| SEE | ponderous Zeppelins lurking over French towns and hornet-like aeroplanes on scout duty in the skies.                         | SEE | the awe-inspiring scenes from battlefields caught by men who cranked their films under fire.   |

These Thrilling Pictures:

Of Actual Battle Scenes Of Cavalry at Work
Of Assaults Upon the Trenches
Of Bomb Hurling Zeppelins Of Scouting Aeroplanes

Take YOU right to the FIRING LINE and SHOW YOU how the WARRING NATIONS conduct their operations.

AT THE MYERS THEATRE

Don't get these pictures confused with any War Pictures that have been here. This is the First Time in Janesville.

Saturday and Sunday, April 17 and 18

Matinees at 2:00 and 3:30 p. m. Nights at 7:30 and 9:00 p. m. Prices: Adults, 25c. Children, 15c.

TRY TO GET IN!

THE RATE FOR ADVERTISEMENTS in these classified columns is one cent per word per insertion. Nothing less than 25c accepted. Cash discount 15 per cent if paid at time order is given. Charge accounts 1 cent per word.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

WHEN YOU THINK OF INSURANCE think of C. P. BEERS. 1-28-11.
IT IS GOOD HARDWARE, Mc Namara has it.
HAZARD HONED—25c, Fremo Bros. 27-11.

FOR GOOD GOODS Talk to Lowell. 1-15-30-11.

RUGS RUGS RUGS

Cleaned thoroughly. Sized. Made New. Phone 321 and 1148. C. F. Brockhaus and Son.

GET YOUR SHOES COBBLED AT Baker's Harness Shop. Best work. Lowest prices. 1-4-6 and 1-mo.

SITUATION WANTED, Female

Announcement of those needing work and unable to pay will be inserted three times free of charge.

WANTED—Position to drive car for private family by experienced driver. Address in care of Gazette. 2-4-12-31.

WANTED—Place as housekeeper in country. Have two children. Address 54 care Gazette. 3-4-12-31.

GIRL WANTS PLACE in small family. Address "A. B. C." Gazette office. 3-4-12-31.

SITUATION WANTED, MALE

Announcement of those needing work and unable to pay will be inserted three times free of charge.

THIRTEEN YEAR OLD BOY wants place to do chores for board and attend school in country. Address 25 Gazette. 2-4-12-31.

WANTED—Position to drive car for private family by experienced driver. Address in care of Gazette. 2-4-12-31.

SITUATION WANTED as driver of truck or private car; experienced. Best of habits, and not afraid of work. Address "Driver," Care of Gazette. 2-4-12-31.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Young girl for light housework, and assist with child. Bell phone 1204. 4-4-14-31.

WANTED—Experienced chamber maid. Grand Hotel. 4-4-14-31.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Mrs. Geo. King, 108 St. Lawrence Ave. 4-4-13-31.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Mrs. Archie Reid, 320 St. Lawrence Ave. 4-4-13-31.

COOK—$7 week, silver girl, second girls, private household. Mrs. E. McCarthy. Both Phones. 4-3-30-11.

MALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Single man, 20 to 30, to travel with manager and learn salesmanship. Experience not necessary. Salary and expenses. Call for O. E. Owen, Thursday, at Park Hotel. 5-4-14-21.

WANTED—Reliable young man to work by month on farm, must be able to milk. Address Farm Hand, Gazette. 5-4-14-31.

YOUNG MAN for our local interests. $12.00 week. No car. Caring. Frontier Mfg. Co., Niagara Falls, N. Y. 4-4-13-31.

WANTED—Night man at Park hotel, temperate habits; single; no boys need apply. 5-4-12-31.

MEN—Increase Your Earnings. Learn the barber trade for which there is always a demand. Many jobs waiting at wages higher than you would expect. Taught in a few weeks by our system. Earn while learning. Write today. Moler Barber College, Milwaukee, Wis. 5-4-10-61.

THE DOTY Manufacturing Co. wants a capable man preferably experienced, to take charge of their local agency business, handling the Doty Vacuum Squeeper on an attractive commission. Write at once to The Doty Manufacturing Co., Box 600, Dayton, Ohio. 5-4-10-61.

AGENTS WANTED

WE STRIVE to keep from this page all undesirable firms. Let us know if you answer a fake. We will prosecute them.

WANTED LOANS

WANTED—To borrow, $1,000 for five years at 7% on 150 acres northern Wisconsin land. Want to use the money in improving the land and putting it in shape to sell. "Security," Gazette. 30-4-14-31.

WANTED—To buy. Double set of breaching work harness with 1 1/2 in. or 1 1/4 in. traces. Bell phone 1583. 6-4-14-21.

WANTED—Baby carriage by worthy family in need of such a conveyance will accept this donation. Address "Baby Carriage," Gazette. 6-4-13-31.

POTATOES WANTED—Highest market prices paid. Call Nolan Bros. Grocery. G. H. Howard. 6-4-12-31.

WANTED TO BUY—A good work horse. Call Old phone 1577. 6-4-12-31.

WANTED—Carpet cleaning. Phone or call. Janesville Rug Co. 6-3-29-11.

WANTED TO EXCHANGE bedavenport for 9x12 velvet or oriental rug. "Rug," Gazette. 30-4-12-31.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO RENT

FOR RENT—Modern, furnished room. Call New Phone Blue 461, after 7:00 p. m. 8-4-14-31.

FOR RENT—Furnished room, 78 So. Jackson St. Second floor. 8-4-12-31.

UNFURNISHED ROOMS TO RENT

WANTED—Roomers, 961 old phone. 9-4-13-31.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 215 Quincy St. 8-4-14-21.

FOR RENT—Three rooms, furnished for light house keeping. New phone Blue 1110. 8-4-12-31.

FLATS FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Modern flat, D. J. Barry, 412 W. Milwaukee St. 4-4-13-31.

FOR RENT—Pleasant upper four-room flat, partly furnished if desired. 214 Peace Court. 4-4-13-31.

FOR RENT—Modern flat, 220 Oakland Ave. 4-4-13-31.

FOR RENT—Steam heated flats. Steve Grubb. 4-4-10-61.

FOR RENT—Flats. 461 Madison St. 4-4-10-61.

FOR RENT—Modern upper flat, opposite post office. W. L. Pines, 411 1/2 St. 4-4-13-31.

FOR RENT—Modern steam heated flat facing park. Mrs. W. B. Conrad, New phone 472. 4-3-19-11.

"I'VE FOUND JUST THE HOUSE I WANT"

Two families were about to move, and the lady of each house knew just what she wanted in the way of a home.

They met the other day and the first thing Mrs. X burst forth with "I've found just the house I want."

"How did you find it?" asked Mrs. Z.

"Why, by watching the Gazette and reading the want ads," replied the first lady. "You know I read those little ads every night whether I want anything or not. You just try it yourself and if you can not find the house you want, why put in an ad yourself. Then you will be sure to get it."

"I'll just do that," said Mrs. Z.

We hope she was not disappointed. Everyone should read the little advertisements on this page. And if you do not see what you want, advertise for it.

FOR RENT—The finest modern apartments in the city. H. J. Cunningham, agency. 45-3-12-11.

HOUSES FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Five room house on South Academy. Inquire 321 South Academy. 11-4-14-31.

FOR RENT—New modern dwelling. Six rooms and bath, will be vacant May 1st. Wisconsin Phone 4. At home evenings, 238 So. Wisconsin St. E. H. Farnsworth. 11-4-13-31.

FOR RENT—House and barn, 1 1/2 acres land. Call old phone 912. 11-4-12-31.

FOR RENT—House, 410 Terrace St. 11-4-12-31.

FOR RENT—Small house at 612 So. Washington. Inquire 2 Chatham or phone Blue 04. 11-4-12-31.

FOR RENT—Large house with garden and fruit on Milton Ave. Call 115 No. Bluff or phone R. C. 267. Bell 1312. 11-4-12-31.

FOR RENT—May 1st, eight room house, 26 So. Bluff. Bath, gas city and soft water. Apply E. F. Woods, 60 So. Main. 11-4-12-31.

STORES FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Splendid store building in Monterey; good location for small business. Rent reasonable. John L. Fisher, Central Block. 47-4-14-31.

FARMS TO LET

FOR RENT—Small farm near city, cash or shares. John L. Fisher, Central Block. 28-4-14-31.

MONEY TO LOAN

WANTED—To loan $1,700, first mortgage. Address "28." 6-4-12-31.

PLANTS AND SEEDS

FOR SALE—Ten bushels onion sets, cheap. New phone 880 line. 13-4-14-31.

FOR SALE—Choice tobacco seed, 200 per cun. Jas. F. Pomb, Avon, Wis., Rte. No. 9, R. C. phone, 23-4-13-31.

FOR SALE—Early Ohio potatoes, oats, barley and corn for seed. O. Douglas, Janesville. Footville phone. 23-4-10-14-15.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Household goods, all new, at 121 No. High. 16-4-12-31.

FOR SALE—One marble-top walnut bedroom suite, cheap. 19 Locust St. 13-4-12-31.

FOR SALE—9x12 Brussels Rug, $2, electric reading lamp, $1; oak music cabinet, $1. 1147 Blue, new phone. 13-4-12-31.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

FOR SALE—A square piano for ten dollars. 1509 Ravine St. Old phone 1493. 30-4-13-31.

FOR SALE, MISCELLANEOUS

FOR SALE—Majestic steel range good as new. Will sell less than half. 162 S. Academy. 13-4-14-31.

FOR SALE—Fenders complete for Ford touring car $20.00. Old phone 696. 13-4-14-31.

FOR SALE—Three box wagon, springs and spring seat, $25. Eight-shovel corn cultivator, $10. F. L. Stevens, 408 A. S. Road, Milton, Wis. 12-4-14-31.

LATEST TYPE INCUBATORS, $8.50 to $12. Milking stools, staple pulpers, wrenches, cold chisels, farmer's supplies.

6-inch Slip Joint Plier mailed to any address within 50 miles. 20c.

Hand saws, 22-inch, 55c; 24-inch, 90c; 26-inch, $1.

Hundreds of other bargains. Bicknell Mfg. & Supply Co. 13-4-13-31.

FOR SALE—Extra fine eating potatoes at 4c a bushel, delivered, new phone Black 942. 13-4-12-31.

FOR SALE—Second hand doors, sash, blinds, quantity of building stone and outside closet. 550 So. Main. Old phone 1750. 13-4-12-31.

BIRD HOUSES—You can have a family of wrens in your yard if you provide them a house. Wren or blue bird houses, 40c, Martin houses, $1.00. Sidney Bliss, 120 Jackson St., phone 93. 13-4-12-31.

FOR SALE at St. Joseph's Convent, rosaries, crucifixes, pictures, medals. Will take orders for religious articles we have not in stock. All at very reasonable prices. 13-3-6-dfr.

PAPER TOWELS AND FIXTURES—Sanitary and economical for schools and public buildings, factories, work rooms, etc., indispensable for the kitchen, 25c per roll, $9 case of 50 rolls. Gazette Printing Dept., Phone 7-4 rings Bell, 27 Rock Co. 13-12-11.

BICYCLE SUPPLIES—Fremo Bros. 12-11-29-11.

FOR SALE—Large warehouse hand truck, 7 feet long, made for hauling heavy barrels, rolls of paper, etc. Cost $25.00, price $10.00. Gazette Office. 13-11-13-11.

FOR SALE—Two 3x10 woven wire steel frame farm gates, Janesville Barb Wire Co. Price 10c. If taken at once, Inquire at Gazette office. 13-1-20-11.

FOR SALE—Complete map of Rock County, showing all roads, school houses, churches, towns, villages, cities, railroads, farms with number of acres and all information. Printed on strong bond paper, handy size. Price 25c, extra strong map, cloth backed, 50c or free with a year's advance subscription to the Daily Gazette. 13-1-20-11.

FOR SALE—Old newspapers, 5 cents a bundle. Gazette Office. 13-5-14-11.

FOR SALE—Strong soap barrel, also ink barrels. Gazette. 13-2-24-11.

FOR SALE—Single type rack with complete lot of new type cases. Very low price if taken at once. Gazette Office. 13-11-13-11.

FOR SALE—Clean strong soap barrel with head, 75 cents at Gazette. 13-10-6-11.

THE NEW GAZETTE PARCELS POST MAPS of the United States giving all units and the zones from Baltimore No. 2263, the most correct map published, are ready for delivery at the Gazette. By paying up back subscriptions and paying for one year in advance for the Daily Gazette, the map will be sent free. The map is regularly sold at $1.50. Gazette patrons may have it at 25 cents or by mail at 35 cents. 2-13-11.

FOR SALE—Engraved cards, wedding invitations and announcements engraved and embossed. Stationery produced in the very latest and newest letter designs. We have connections with several engraving services. Call R. C. 267, 27 Bell, 77-4, for Fritting Department of the Gazette.

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

FOR SALE—New and second hand, carom and pocket billiard tables, bowling alleys and accessories, bar fixtures of all kinds. Easy payments. W. Z. TRUST CO., 277-279 West Water, street, Milwaukee. 13-12-11.

BICYCLES

HIGH GRADE BICYCLES, C. H. Cox. 43-12-30-11.

PREMO BROTHERS for Bicycles. 43-11-29-11.

PAPER HANGING

PAPER HANGING—A specialty on all grades of paper. All work guaranteed, first class. Paul Davenport, 335 So. Jackson St. 3-29-20-11.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Cheap. Three fine building lots, Third ward. W. J. Litta, Janesville. 33-4-14-31.

STOP PAYING RENT—Buy good six-room house for $15 monthly payments. Also Duplex house bringing 10% on investment. Walter Helms, 4-14-31.

FOR SALE—Good 8-room house, close in, price right. "W." Care Gazette. 33-4-12-31-Mon-Wed-Sat.

FOR SALE—House and lot cheap; close in; all improvements; Address 55 Gazette. 33-4-13-31.

FOR SALE VERY CHEAP—10-room lot in First ward. Electric lights, gas and furnace, large garden space and young fruit. House in best of repair inside and out. Must be sold at once. D. W. Conway, 212 East Milwaukee. 33-4-22-61.

FOR SALE—Vacant lot. More addition. South front. Unobstructed view of city. Vacant lot, corner Western Ave. and Jefferson St. Enquire Dr. E. E. Loomis, 14 S. Main. 33-4-10-17.

FOR SALE—Desirable building lots in second ward. To responsible person will accept small payment down and arrange for small monthly installments without interest. Address in building Gazette. 33-4-22-61.

I OFFER FOR SALE at a very reasonable price, my thorough modern house on Carrington street, adjoining Senator Whitehead's new home. Furnace, bath, hardwood floors, buta sewerage in and streets paved. Fine outbuildings. J. S. Field. 33-3-23-11.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES

FOR SALE—Rubber tired buggy, full leather top, good condition. Bell phone 518. 26-4-8-61.

POULTRY AND HOUSEHOLD PETS

FOR SALE—Single comb Red eggs. Will hatch dark pullets, and heavy layers. $1.00 for 15. 339 S. Bluff. 22-4-14-31.

FOR SALE—25 R. I. red pullets and chicken coop. Reasonable. 1270 Pleasant; old phone 908. 22-4-12-31.

FOR SALE—White Wyandotte eggs for setting. W. A. Douglas, Center Ave. R. C. phone 914 Red. 22-4-12-31.

FOR RENT—Pleasant upper four-room flat, 214 Peace Court. 45-4-12-31.

WANTED—Grown rabbits, 25c apiece. 118 Terrace St. 22-4-8-61.

FOR SALE—Barred Rock eggs for hatching. 50c per 13. 118 Terrace St. 22-4-8-61.

FOR SALE—Barred Plymouth Rock eggs, E. B. Thompson strain, $1 per 15. Frank Sadler, Court St. Bridge. 22-3-31-26-11.

FOR SALE—Single Comb Red Eggs that will hatch winners and heavy layers. A. H. Christensen, 1207 Ruger Ave. 22-3-11-11.

AUTOMOBILES

FOR SALE—One Brush runabout $45. One Cadillac runabout $40. One Cadillac touring car in good running order $225, all new tires. One Forders runabout, first class condition. $200. Robert F. Bugge's Garage, Bell phone 144, R. C. phone 522. 18-4-13-31.

FOR SALE—Five passenger 45-horse automobile in fine condition. Has run 8000 miles; cost $1800; will sell for $800. No trade. O. W. Denkle, Fort Atkinson, Wis. 18-4-13-31.

FOR SALE—Model "N" Ford Truck. Overhauled, new tires. $95. Phone 323. 36-4-12-31.

FOR SALE—Flanders roadster completely overhauled. One Chevrolet roadster good condition. Can be seen at Motor Co. 18-4-9-31.

FOR SALE—1913-5 passenger Path-finder with self starter and electric light, run 3300 miles. Inquire "1913" Gazette. 18-3-31-dfr.

FOR SALE—Five passenger touring car, first class condition. Practical new tires. Repainted. S. S. Stone, 314 W. Milw. St. 18-2-24-11.

SEND FOR FREE BOOKLET—Entitled "Auction Sale and How To Prepare for Them," containing a lot of useful information on getting up an auction and the arrangement of details. Post card will bring it. Address The Janesville Gazette. 54-9-12-dfr.

LIQUOR

FOR SALE—Durham Bulls, a few choice ones left. Inspection of herd invited. R. R. Boynton, Janesville, Rte 2, Avalon Station. 21-2-27-61-Sat-Wed.

FOR SALE—Few choice Durham bulls and heifers. James G. Little, Janesville, Wis. Rte. 5. Old phone 5135 Black. 21-4-12-31.

FARMERS, ATTENTION

FARMERS ATTENTION—Let me figure on your basement floors and all concrete work. Arthur Stone, 1133 So. Cherry. Old phone 1666. 60-4-6-12-11.

FOR SALE—The complete John Deere Lawmower, Spreaders, Plows, Corn Planters, Disks, Corn Cultivators, Mowers, Hay Loaders, Binders, etc. Nitscher Implement Co. 60-3-15-dfr.

TEAMING

GARDENS PLOWED and ashes hauled. Edw. Wolter. Old phone 918. Call evenings. 43-4-13-31.

ASHES HAULED—Ben Miller. New phone 371 Red. 43-4-10-31.

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—Cap of automobile wheel. Owner can have same by paying for this ad. Call at Gazette office. 25-4-13-21.

MISCELLANEOUS

STRAW HATS made new with Ed. Kay's Straw Hat Dye. Waterproof and durable. All colors 25c. Ed. Kay's Pharmacy. 27-4-4-31.

NOTICE—The Ideal Chemical Works have just made a fresh supply of Egg Preserver. Now is the time to get up eggs. Call R. C. phone 959 Red. 27-4-14-31.

ASHES HAULED, gardens plowed, black dirt and lawn manure. C. H. Jucker, R. C. phone 646, white. 27-4-13-61.

ASHES HAULED and gardens plowed. J. C. Lyons. Old phone 1863. 27-4-13-61.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED and repaired. Fremo Bros., 21 No. Main St. 4-10-11.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED and repaired. Fremo Bros., 21 No. Main St. 4-10-11.

G. F. HILLER, JR.—General teaming of all kinds, ashes hauled, gardens plowed, manure for lawns and roads, horses clipped. 702 Center Ave. Rock County phone 645 Black. Bell phone 1084. 27-3-23-24-11.

ASHES HAULED, sand and gravel delivered. Henry Kaylor. New phone Blue 797. Old phone 1603. 27-9-12-11.

PIANO TUNING

If you want your piano tuned or repaired call me up on either phone.

Geo. T. Packard.

Both Phones.

Rock Co. phone 1035. Bell phone 1390

F. A. Albrecht

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR

218 W. Milwaukee Street

With Bloedel & Rice.

452 No. Pearl St. Janesville, Wis.

Patent Attorney

RICHARD S. C. CALDWELL, formerly of Morse & Caldwell, Pat. agents, Trade Marks and Copyrights.

815 Majestic Bldg., Milwaukee, Wis.

CLYDESDALE STALLION

Barron Joy will make his usual stand after May 1.

PIGEON HOLE APPROVAL OF THE BOARD'S PLAN

Continued from page one.

established too brief a period to judge fairly of the results of its work. The most prominent result, judging from reports, is the fact that education in Idaho is being studied and administered as a unit in the interests of all the necessary kinds of education and in the interests of all communities and peoples alike and the large problems of education are given fundamental consideration. Artistic distinctions and local false pride and prejudices and selfish business interests are being discouraged.

There has been a very decided and definite increase in economy and efficiency in a number of lines, and the administration of all the institutions has progressed without a single serious break.

"The Idaho plan, it is said, is designed to permit the state to handle its educational problems in terms of the whole state always and everywhere. The people of Idaho are now wide awake and thinking about their schools. Teachers and school administrators, as well as the general public, all over the state are giving the board generous support."

In beginning the report on the Iowa situation the investigator says:

"The Iowa plan, like most other states, lacked a comprehensive and definite educational policy and centralized direction for all educational activities. Local interests and personal ambition rather than the welfare of the state as a whole had determined the educational activities. This situation is not characteristic of Iowa alone, but is likely to obtain in every state where the support of an institution depends upon a direct appeal to the legislature."

The investigator quotes the statement of the president of the finance committee of the state board of education in answer to the question "Why was the board organized?" as follows:

"Reason for Central Board. The board was organized by reason of the fact that in Iowa our educational institutions, particularly the state university and state college of agriculture and mechanical arts, were organized as separate institutions and are governed by separate boards. For many years these institutions through their executive officers came before the legislature asking for large appropriations. Not infrequently these financial requests were in excess of the money available and the legislature found it exceedingly difficult to satisfy itself through its committee that it was acting justly in the matter of the adjudication of these rival plans."

The result in Iowa the investigator says:

"The finance policy of the board, according to reports, has effected a general and decided improvement in the business administration of the institutions under the control of the board. More economical expenditure has been accompanied by greater material development. Confidence in the business ability and integrity of the board has been established and more funds have been granted for the buildings and equipment and for additional support than ever before. This support has been made permanent. The budget submitted to the legislature by the board in 1911 was passed in one hour without modification and without the lobbying and log rolling engaged in in the previous legislatures. The financial policy of the board seems to have met with general approval."

In his report upon the situation in Kansas the investigator says:

"The reasons for establishing the board are reported as follows: Higher education in Kansas, like in most states, was characterized by wasteful competition and harmful rivalry. Frequent special investigations of the institutions were being conducted very unsettled and unsatisfactory state. The faculties of the institutions were elected annually because the idea was prominent that uncertainty of re-election increased efficiency. One investigating committee appointed by Governor Stubbs had for its purpose to investigate and determine the efficiency of every person from president to janitor of each institution."

Reasons for establishing the board are given by ex-Governor Hoch as follows:

"Because of a demand for closer co-ordination of schools, to prevent useless duplication; to unite them in one great educational family; to check growing antagonism; and for more economic management."

Hon. Scott Hopkins, University of Kansas, is quoted as follows:

"To reduce expenses and to co-ordinate the work in our three separate state institutions."

As for results in Kansas the investigator says:

The board has favored permanency in position and therefore the members of the old faculties, as far as they were recommended by the presidents, were re-elected. Salaries were advanced according to the merit scale, rather than the old horizontal scale. This has meant a great saving to the state money and in the services of capable and worthy men. No exceptional man has been lost from the faculty whose retention was recommended by the said institutions except where the person accepted a position which offered a higher salary. Investigation is being made of the economic needs of the people with a view to adjusting the schools to meet those needs. The extension work of the various institutions has been reorganized and co-ordinated. A central purchasing department has been established which will mean a great financial saving. A study of the number and size of the classes showed rivalry between departments and classes. This has led to the reorganization of the classes and the fixing of a minimum number for classes organization with the result of greater efficiency, less expense, a better spirit."

$504 Cost of Report. The Schatz report cost the state $504.28, according to figures given out by the board of public affairs. Had the statute been followed it would have been in the hands of the legislature one month before the 1915 session and would have proved of inestimable value. It is common knowledge that Governor Phelan advocated the central board of education as early as July, 1914. It is well known also that the personnel of the board of public affairs at that time was made up of members of the legislative political faction. Whether politics entered into the disposition of the Schatz report or not, it is claimed that it was a waste of public money and an utter disregard for legislative action to pigeonhole this report.

It is a question even now whether the report will be printed in time for its circulation among members of the 1915 legislature.

Humane Turkish Laws. It is unlawful in Turkey to seize a man's residence for debt, and sufficient land to support him is also exempt from seizure.

Quick sellers—Gazette want ads.

Milton News

Milton, Wis., April 14.—The concert last evening by the Firemen's band, under the direction of Frank L. Burdick, was a success, and the money that followed it added to the occasion. The attendance was good, but should have been larger as a token of appreciation on the part of our citizens of the excellent service which the band is giving, at much sacrifice of time and labor on their part.

The program is as follows:

March—New York City Post.....Crumbly
Venetian Roses.....Bennett Trio—Violoncello Polka.....Pettre
Overture—Snap Shot.....Losey
Flower Song.....Lange
March—The Chase.....Rudy
"Won in the Crowd".....A three reel motion picture was of unusual interest.

Evansville News

Evansville, April 14.—On Monday evening the Commercial club rooms were open to the public so that all persons interested in the proposed lake restoration might inspect the plans, specifications and profiles of the lake, recently made by Engineer E. B. Parsons. Several hundred local residents availed themselves of the hospitality of the club and though no special addresses on the matter were given, a general discussion of the plans enabled all present to gain a more comprehensive and intelligent idea of the plans.

Mr. Parsons estimated the cost of restoring the dam at about $2,400, his plan being to reinforce the old dam by digging a trench the entire length of same, and filling it with eight inches of concrete, thus making the work much cheaper than if an entire new concrete dam were built just inside of the old one.

Mr. Parsons estimated the cost of excavating at about $300, the reinforced concrete at about $2,100. His estimate also included two spillways each about fifty feet in length, one located where the old spillway was, and the other at a point where the stream now runs through the old dam which he considers will be sufficient to care for any surplus water.

About fifty-five acres of land would be required, and as it is not known just how much this would cost the city an accurate estimate of the entire expense is not possible just now.

The Tuesday evening Tourist Club was entertained last night by Miss Lily Lees, the evening's program being a study of "Tess of D'Urbervilles" as follows:

Tess of D'Urbervilles—

1. Thos. Hardy the man—Pearl Campbell.

2. Thomas Hardy, the Writer—Eliel Hoag.

3. Resume of First third of book—Jessie Kelley, Fannie Stearns, Davis Gifford, Helen Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell of Madison are spending a few days with Byron Campbell of this city.

Mrs. Horton was a Janesville visitor for the first part of this week.

Mrs. Ellen Copp of North Johnston, arrived Tuesday for a few days visit with local friends.

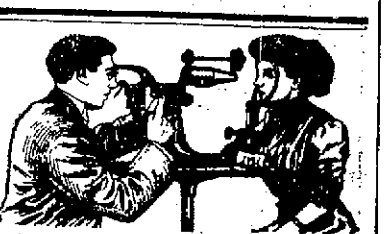

Charles Decker was a Madison visitor Tuesday.

For Estacio who was in the employ of the Baker Mfg. Co. of this city has accepted a position with the Gisholt Mfg. Co. of Madison.

Mrs. Fred Laubacher, a former

HOW TO CURE STOMACH TROUBLES

Excessive acid in the stomach, or hyperacidity, as it is called, is primarily responsible for nearly all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, and flatulence, and quite frequently leads to stomach ulcers. The successful treatment for prevention as well as cure of such cases depends entirely on neutralizing the excess acid, stopping the food fermentation, and healing the inflamed mucous membrane that lines the stomach. For this purpose specialists are now advising the use of pure bisulphate of magnesia, obtainable at any drugstore which has recently been found to be unequalled in the treatment of even the severest cases. A teaspoonful in a little water immediately after eating stops all pain almost instantly, neutralizes the acid, and soothes the inflamed stomach and if regularly used will quickly remove the cause of the trouble and effect complete relief.—Advertisement.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW about the different kinds of new lenses and their effect on the eyes? BRING TO DATE and learn from us what suits you may expect to obtain from their use. We will be glad of the opportunity to explain this to you and you will be glad to know.

A. E. HARTE
OPTOMETRIST
EVANSVILLE, WIS.

You don't have to wait until you get an even hundred, or five hundred dollars, as the case may be. You can get one of our

Certificates of Deposit

in any amount, which will earn 3% interest for you.

THE BANK OF EVANSVILLE

Founded 1870.
GEO. L. PULLEN, President.

resident of this city returned were home at Mineral Point yesterday after a visit with old friends here. A. D. Bullard motored to Madison yesterday.

Miss Mae Phillips was a Janesville visitor Monday afternoon. Mrs. H. O. Walton visited relatives at Calnville Monday.

Mrs. Howard Van Patten and sister Miss Nesbitt were Bower City visitors the first of the week.

Mrs. Horton was a recent Footville visitor.

Mrs. C. E. Bestor and daughter, Miss Helen returned Monday from a visit with Roy Bestor and family in Madison.

Miss Nina Munger is the new operator at the local telephone exchange.

Miss Avis Hurd is on the sick list.

Miss Lenore Miller is filling her position during her absence from the telephone office.

Miss Ina Shorman has returned to her school duties at Hillsdale, after a visit with her parents here.

L. S. Leighton of Oniro was a recent local business visitor.

Mrs. E. Van Patten and daughter, Miss Lulu spent Monday in Janesville.

The young people of the Congregational Church gave a Parcels Post social on Thursday night.

Miss Mae Phillips and Miss Veronica Rowley spent Monday visiting in Janesville, visiting kindergarten.

There is no place you can dispose of any thing as quickly and cheaply as through a classified ad. Try it and be convinced.

EXPLAINS BUDGET FOR NEW BUILDINGS

President Van Hise of University Makes Clear That Men's Dormitory is a Necessity.

Madison, Wis., April 14.—The university budget for new buildings was explained before the joint finance committee yesterday afternoon by President C. R. Van Hise. The urgency of the need for a men's dormitory was made clear by the president, who pointed to the excessive charges for room and board imposed upon poor students by landlords. The university plans to furnish these livings at $6 per week.

After stating his case, the president suggested that if the full amount asked cannot be allowed at this session, the minimum the legislature ought to allow was the appropriations for the physics and soils buildings and one-half of the desired grant for a men's dormitory, or $175,000.

President Van Hise said that 30 per cent of the students work their way through and that present prices for living in the student section discourage them from continuing their education. The loan funds are continually drawn upon to save such students from leaving. What he wanted most in the university, he said, is equality of opportunity, and he hoped that no action would be taken which would turn the university back from this object.

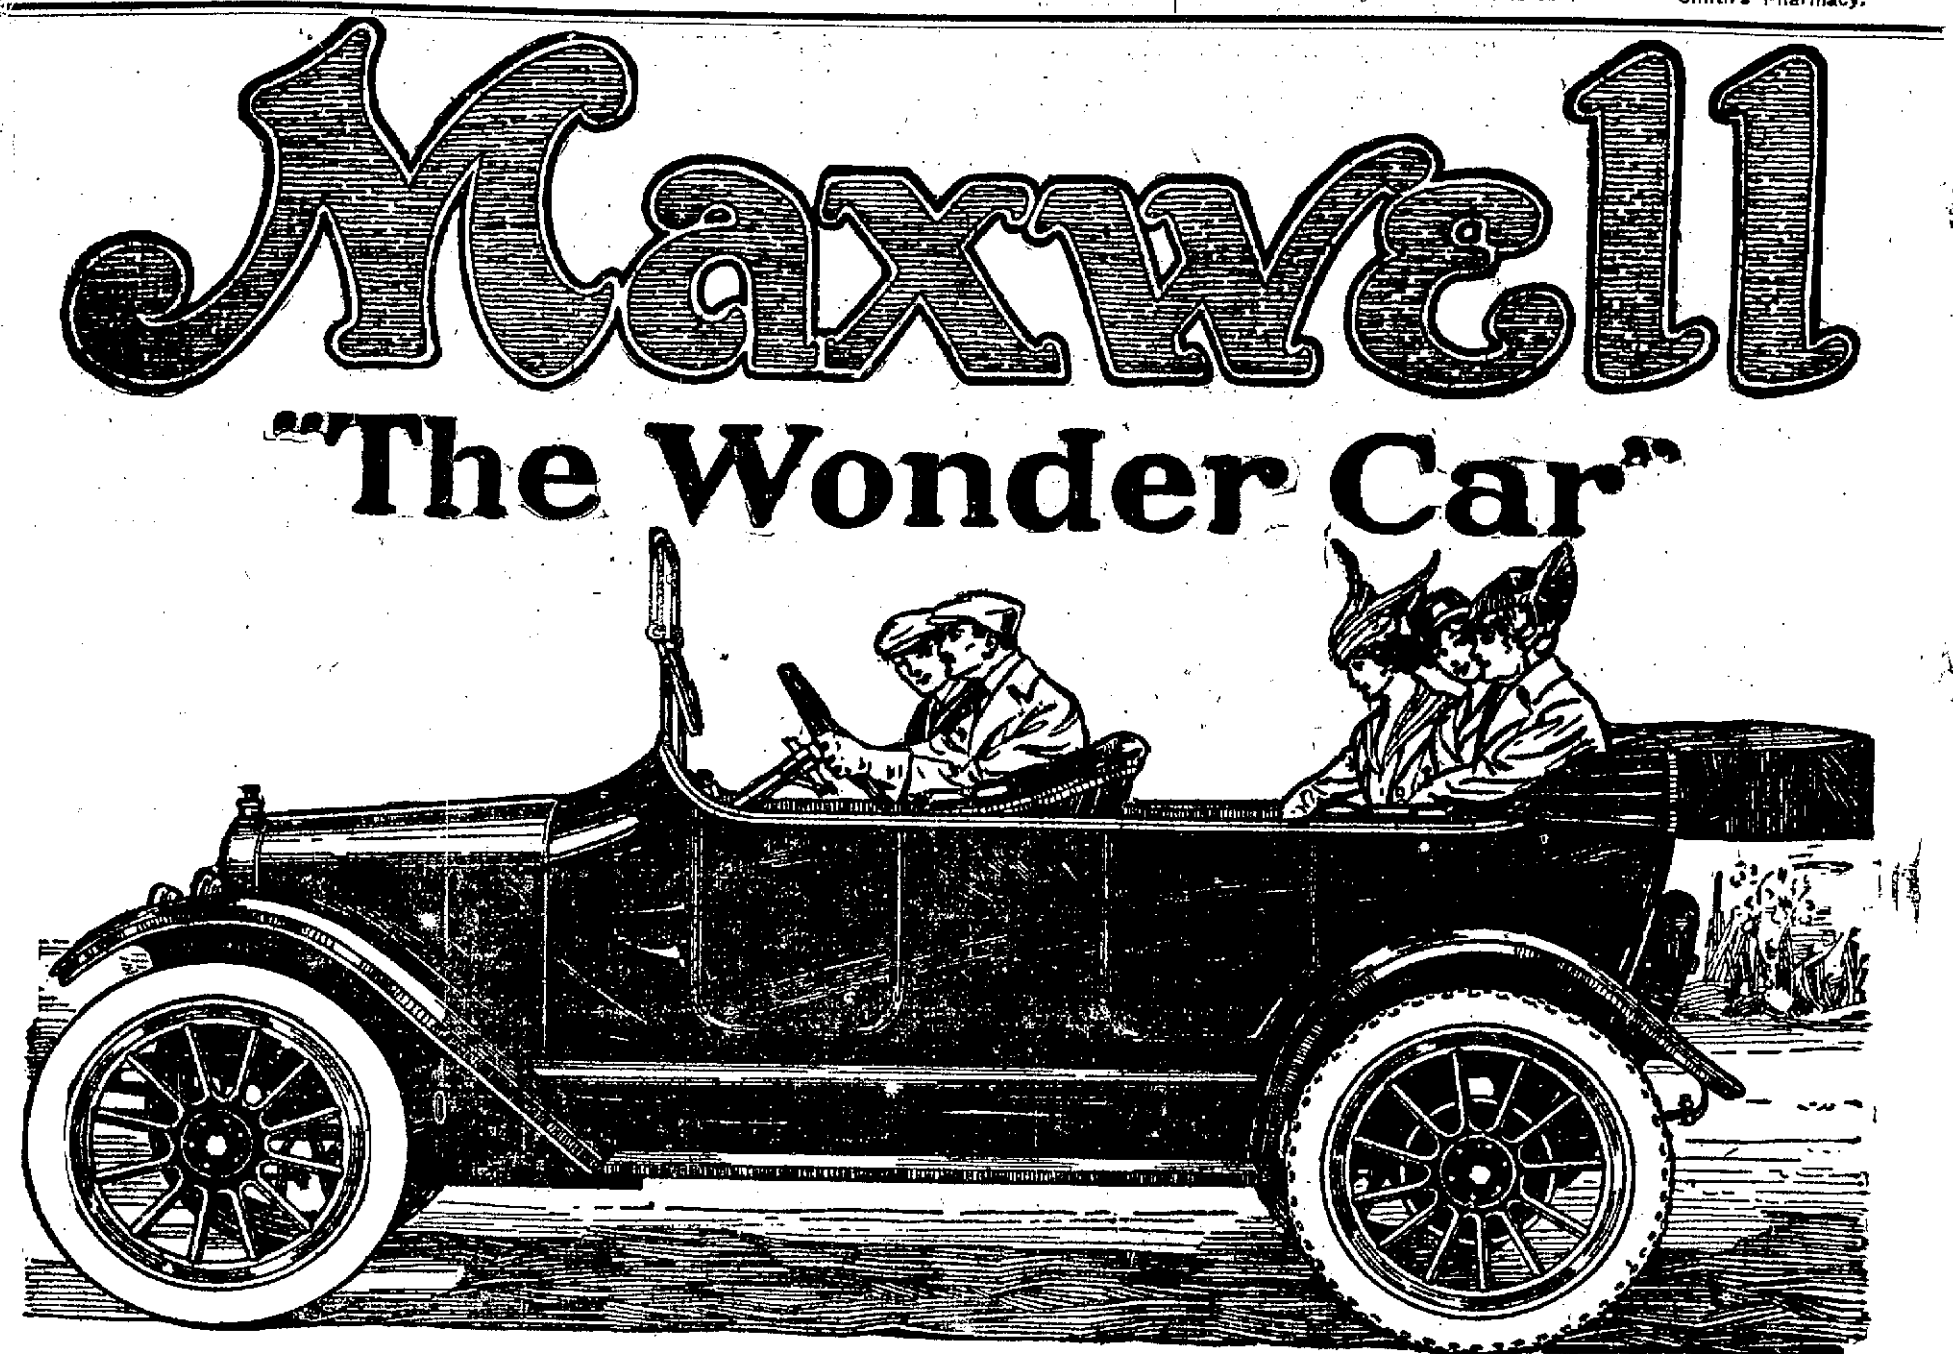

The money has been appropriated and contracts are ready to be awarded. The Hoffman bill under discussion, would repeal these appropriations.

Regent G. D. Jones of Wausau told how he once did not believe in the men's dormitory plan but had come to change his views.

A Convalescent requires a food tonic that will rapidly build up wasted tissue.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion containing Hypophosphites is a most reliable prescription which we always recommend for that purpose.

Smith's Pharmacy.

Maxwell 11

"The Wonder Car"

This is the car that 38,000 happy owners have given the "rough and tumble" acid test of real automobile owners' wear

An automobile on the road for 18 months in constant, every-day use by an owner ceases to be a designer's theory.

It becomes—either a great automobile success;
Or it becomes—a great automobile failure.

Multiply one model by 38,000 and give each one of these 38,000 automobiles day in and day out rough and tumble road wear, and if this car stands up and delivers, it has become one of the rare great automobile successes.

And that is the Maxwell success today—that is exactly the "Acid Test" that the Maxwell has passed through, and that is why the Maxwell is the most talked about automobile that is built today.

The Maxwell automobile is today one of the very few great automobile successes the world has ever known.

And this is the car we urge you to see. This is the car that you owe it to yourself to see. We want to tell you about its hill climbing triumphs. We want to tell you about its speed and endurance records. We want to show you and add up for you every one of its new features.

Read This List of Expensive Features. The 1915 Maxwell Has These Features And Many Others.

PURE STREAMLINE BODY
A large, roomy, beautiful body, fitted with deep, comfortable upholstery, ample leg room, adjustable front seat and the best fourteen-coat, hand-painted and striped finish. All Maxwell bodies are constructed of pressed steel, mounted on a steel-channel sectioned frame, offering the greatest possible strength with minimum weight.

SPRING SUSPENSION
Without a doubt you will find the Maxwell the easiest riding, light car made. With its ample sufficient wheel base, and semi-elliptic front springs and three-quarter elliptic rear springs, built of the very best of spring steels, the Maxwell cushions its passengers from all the jars and bumps of rough roads. It is so comfortable and easy riding that you will remark the difference on your first ride.

THE POWERFUL MAXWELL MOTOR
The most powerful, durable motor of its size made. Ample power to negotiate any road, mud, sand or hill—always at your command. Almost troubleproof, every part accessible, and what is more, it is a motor of genuine economy. More miles per gallon, day in and day out, than you would believe possible if one were to tell you. The Maxwell of a motor stands to-day one of the very best in dependable efficiency.

DOUBLE SHELL RADIATOR
A beautiful, troubleproof, highly efficient radiator. Every part but the shell constructed of high-grade copper. It will not corrode and leak. Protected against breakage by a heavy pressed steel shell and special shock-absorbing devices on each side of the frame that protects it against the many strains and twists of the car.

THE STEERING GEAR
Irreversible worm and gear, the only safe steering device. Maxwell uses a gear instead of the foot and your car comes to a dead stop.

BRAKES THAT HOLD AND LAST
One square inch of braking surface to every twelve pounds of weight. That's more than most any other car gives to-day. Maxwell brakes are thoroughly dependable, enclosed and protected from dust and dirt, and have special anti-rattling devices. Maxwell brakes are very easy to handle. The slightest pressure of the foot and your car comes to a dead stop.

The Maxwell Company's Guarantee of Service to Maxwell Owners

No other automobile is backed by a more reliable service than that guaranteed every Maxwell owner. In every part of this country—are always ready to give expert advice, to make adjustments, and to supply new parts at reasonable prices. This splendid Maxwell dealer service organization is perfected and completed by the chain of Maxwell owned and Maxwell operated Service Branches. Sixteen great Maxwell Service Stations are so located throughout the country that a Maxwell dealer can supply any part for an owner within a few hours if not in his stock. Maxwell Service is one of the great advantages enjoyed by Maxwell owners.

Order a Maxwell from us now, and when you want it delivered, we will give you your car—not an excuse on delivery day

"EVERY ROAD IS A MAXWELL ROAD"

$695 KEMMERER GARAGE "THE BEST" $695

206-12 E. Milwaukee St. E. A. KEMMERER, Prop. Both Phones

P.O.B. ELECTRIC $55 EXTRA
DETROIT STARTER $55 EXTRA